

WHAT'S NEWS, WRJ?

ERRATUM

The following errors were identified in the June 2019 SE District Newsletter, Vol. 1, Issue 3.

The article titled, "WRJ National Board Meets in May" under National News on page 7 should be titled, "WRJ Board Meets in May." The word 'National' should be removed.

In the article titled, "WRJ National Board Meets in May" under National News on page 7, Judith O. Rosenkranz, WRJ Past President, and Susan Bass, current WRJ President and WRJ Southeast District Past President, were both inadvertently omitted from the list of women representing the Southeast District at the WRJ Board Meeting in Washington, DC. Titles have also been added.

Correction in the second sentence in the first paragraph should read:

Our District was well represented by Susan Bass (current WRJ President & WRJ Southeast District Past President), Judith O. Rosenkranz (WRJ Past President), Rebekah Barkowitz (current Southeast District VP of Marketing and Communications & WRJ Board member), Madelyn Davidson (current Southeast District First VP & WRJ Board member), Shelley Niceley Groff (current Southeast District Area Director & WRJ Executive Committee member), Madi Hoesten (WRJ Southeast District Past President & current WRJ VP, Affiliate Services), Cheryl Raskind-Hood (current Southeast District President & WRJ Board member), Blair Marks (WRJ Immediate Past President & WRJ Southeast District Past President), Ellen Petracco (WRJ Southeast District Immediate Past President and WRJ Board member), and Denise Levine (WRJ Northeast District Past President, current WRJ Southeast District Israel Liaison and WRJ Executive Committee member).
