

ADA ACCESSIBILITY

All Park City Transit buses are ADA accessible, and drivers are trained to assist persons with disabilities in boarding and disembarking. Park City Transit offers door-to-door paratransit service for passengers who are unable to use the fixed-route service. For more information, contact Park City's paratransit certification office at: (435) 615-5353. TTY: (435) 615-7041. pcmobility@parkcity.org

PARKING IN PARK CITY

Parking around town is extremely limited, and parking regulations are strictly enforced. Some designated Festival parking lots charge between $10 and $20 per entry (CASH ONLY). An extremely limited number of lots offer free parking. Each lot is served by free Festival shuttle buses. Overnight parking is not permitted. All lots operate on a first-come, first-served basis.

THE YARD (Park and Ride)

Designated parking for the Temple Theatre Express shuttle route. There is NO parking at Temple Theatre. The YARD is a large lot, easily accessible for patrons going to the Eccles, the MARC, Prospector Square Theatre, and Headquarters. It's only a short walk to the Holiday Village Cinemas and the Yarrow Theatre. There is a cash fee per entry. The free festival shuttle picks up right in front of The YARD. Located at 1251 Kearns Blvd., Entrance from Homestake Rd.

LOTS F/G

There is a cash fee per entry. Located at 1775 Prospector Ave., just south of Headquarters. Short walk to Prospector Square Theatre and Headquarters.

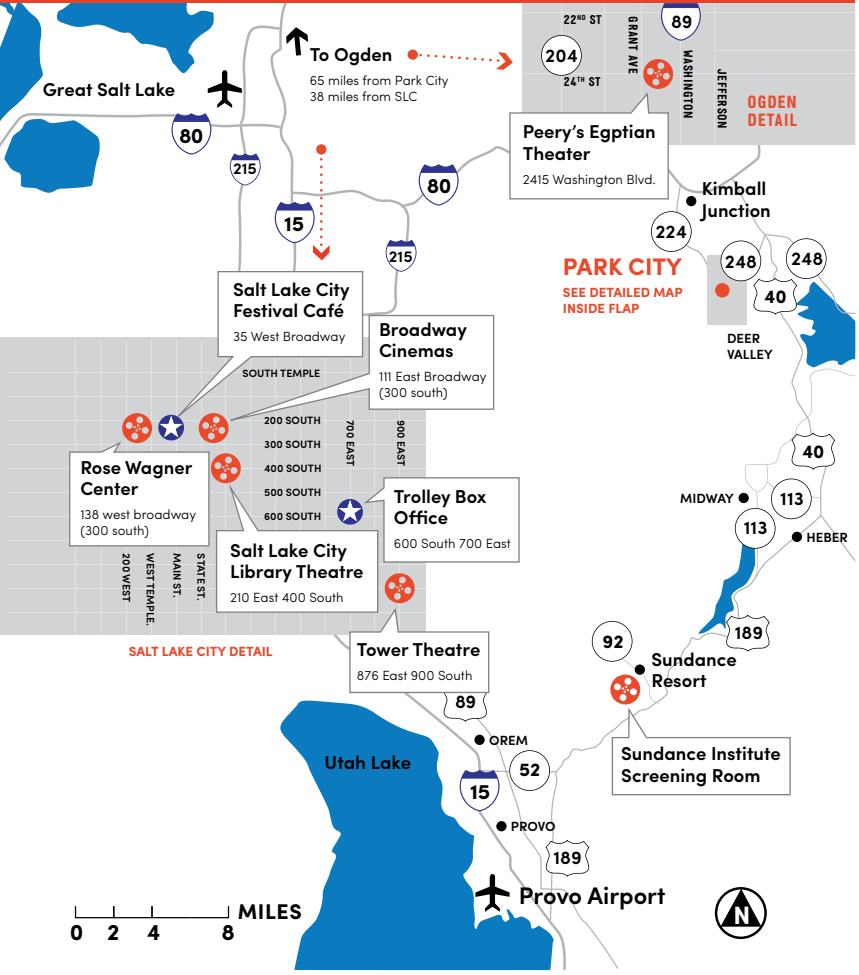

MONITOR DRIVE PARKING LOT

Located on 2300 Monitor Dr. Limited, free parking Monday through Friday, 3:00 p.m. to midnight and all day Saturday. NO PARKING ON SUNDAY. Within walking distance of Eccles Theatre. The free festival shuttle stops next to the Monitor Dr. lot for easy access to the MARC Theatre.

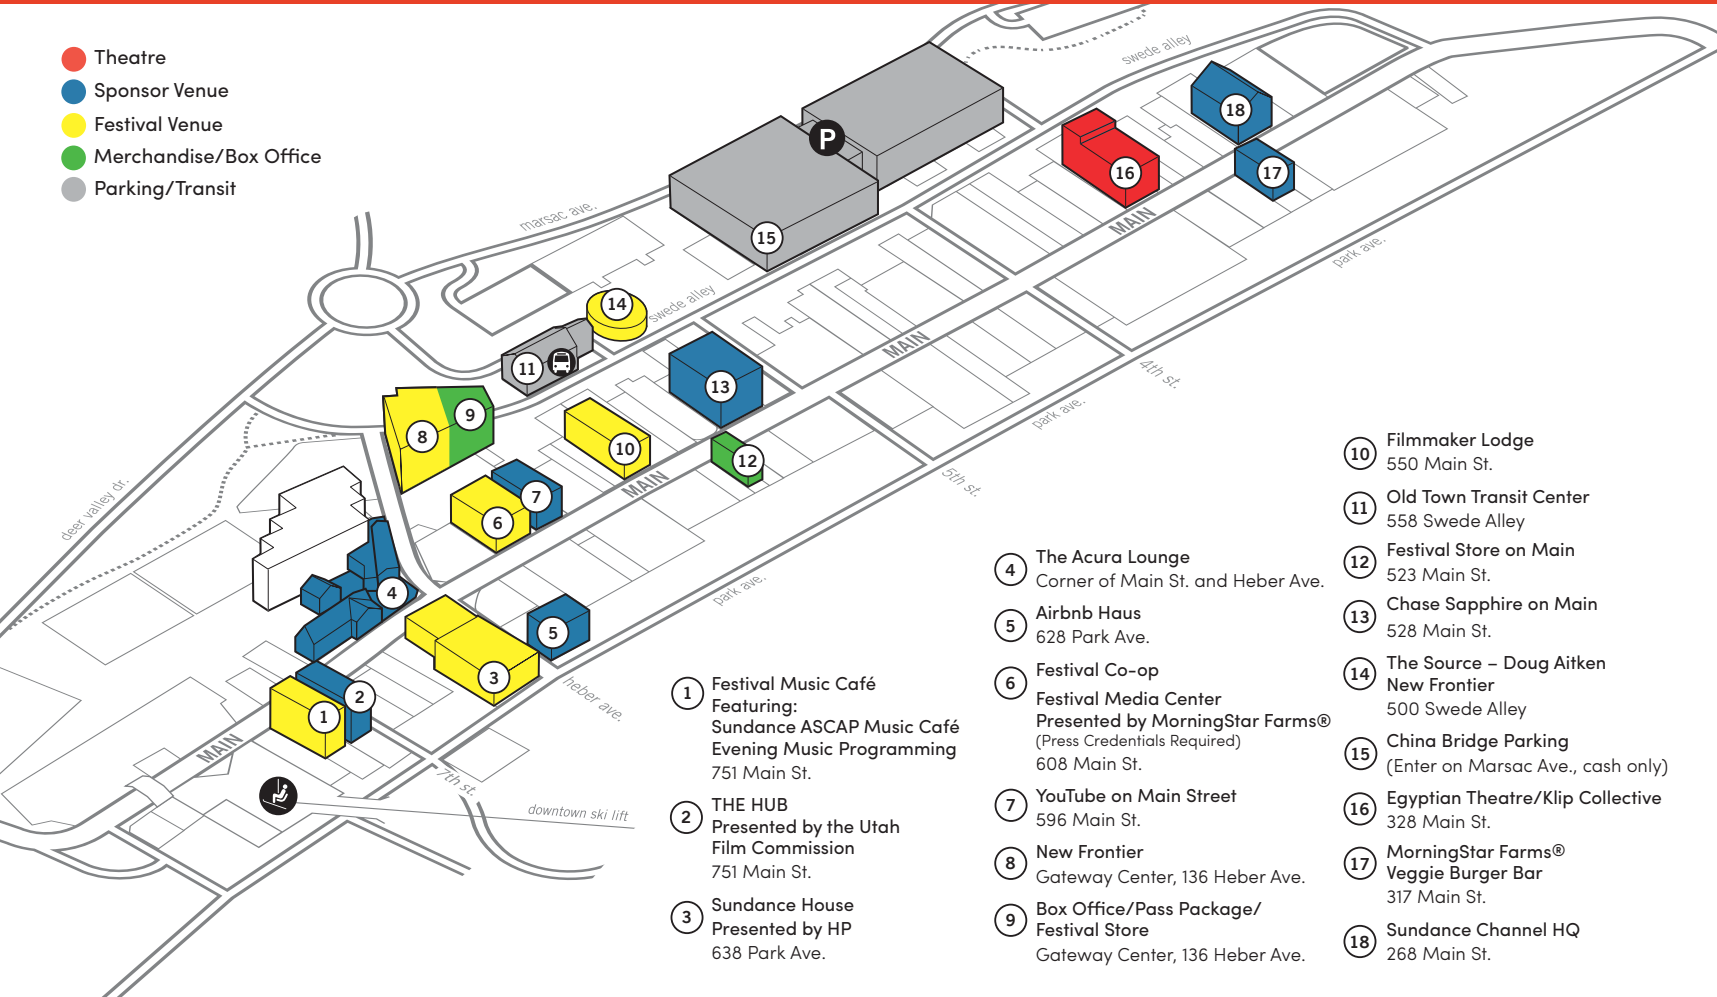

CHINA BRIDGE PARKING STRUCTURE

The China Bridge parking structure (Entrance via Marsac Ave.) is available to Festival patrons for a cash fee. It is located one block east of Main Street on Swede Alley, perfect for a quick walk to the Egyptian Theatre, Sundance House Presented by HP, and other Main Street venues. NOTE: This facility is likely to reach capacity early in the day.

WALKING

Walking is a great option in Park City; the lighted pedestrian paths and sidewalks throughout town are often the quickest way to get around. Remember that it's winter in the Rocky Mountains, so the weather can change quickly; be sure to dress appropriately.

GENERAL INFORMATION

TOWING
If your car is towed within Park City proper, call Park City Police Dispatch at (435) 615-5500 or Park City Towing at (435) 645-7775.

TAXI SERVICES
There are many taxis that service Park City and the surrounding areas; before you get into a cab we recommend that you:

Ask the driver or dispatcher what the fees are.

Remember, during Sundance Film Festival there may be additional fees depending on time of day, location of your drop-off/pick-up, or any other reason.

If you are in the cab, please ask to see the fee schedule so there is no question—every driver is required to have one.

Look for the permit sticker on the left-hand corner of the rear window that ensures the taxi is licensed to operate in Park City.

GETTING AROUND

Getting around Park City during the Festival can be easy. Avoid the headaches of traffic and parking by riding the free Festival shuttle buses. There is no parking at Park City theatres and venues, so if you must drive, park in a Festival designated park and ride lot. The free shuttle buses stop in front of all Festival designated parking lots.

Free Festival shuttle buses and Park City Transit buses stop frequently at every Festival theatre and venue, and most accommodations. Early morning citywide service starts daily at 5:45 a.m., and the last citywide bus leaves the Old Town Center at 2:30 a.m. Peak hours are from 8:00 a.m. to midnight for all routes.

Plan your trips between venues using the routes listed on: www.parkcitytransit.org
