A Note from Rick: No significant changes in the market across the board this week at TLA. Tuesday markets were very steady compared to the last couple of weeks. Our special Springer Sale on Thursday went very well. We had a good run of quality cattle again and were lucky to have some new buyers. I felt at the end of the day that buyers and sellers were both happy and that doesn't always happen..... We had a large alternative animal sale last weekend and had large numbers of animals and people. We know that it wasn't perfect and we weren't expecting it to be. We still have some finishing touches to complete our renovation project and did the best we could under the circumstances. Thank you to all of the great people that were so understanding. We are excited about the Friesian Fall Classic, Driving Horse Auction and the Fall Draft. It will be a great feeling to see horses drive in the new facility. We are looking forward to some great sales and hope that you will be able to make it to Topeka. Have a safe and plentiful harvest. See you at TLA!
