

Densifier Operator

Densifier Machine Operator Job Purpose: Responsible for processing the waste from the Fiber Production Department, as well as outside purchased PET waste, into usable raw material.

Densifier Machine Operator Job Duties:

- Pick bags of fiber waste from the warehouse, transport to pre-cutter and feed material per instruction.
- Feed fiber into the densifier and produce popcorn material according to the procedure.
- Monitor machine condition (speed, current) so as not to overload or clog the machine.
- Be responsible for the overall cleanliness of the work area, maintain good housekeeping.
- Responsible for performing routine machine maintenance such as lubricating bearings, tightening bolts, etc.
- Produce minimum value of passing quality materials on every shift.
- Other duties as assigned by lead, supervisor and/or manager.

EDUCATION / TRAINING:

- High School Diploma / GED
- General Safety Practices
- Lock Out / Tag Out

TRAVEL REQUIRED:

- NONE

Department:

- Reprocessing

Skills / Qualifications:

- Employee must be able to work in hot and cold environments
- Stand for 8 hour shifts on concrete floor and/or platform area.
- Ability to work in a small team; be self-sufficient and accountable
- Ability to push/pull up to 25 lbs continuously, 50 lbs occasionally
- Ability to drive a forklift
- Complete forklift certification prior to usage