

Rescue Task Force: One Day Course

Hosted by: Eagle River Police Department

Address: Vilas County Sheriff's Office

330 Court Street, Eagle River, Wisconsin, 54521

Date: April 14th or 15th, 2020, 8:00 am—5:00 pm

The Rescue Task Force course, hosted by the Eagle River Police Department and taught by the National Tactical Officers Association, is designed to teach students the four main methods of warm zone care during active violence incidents. This abbreviated one-day course will discuss driving tactics as well as a reasonable expectation for success during active violence incidents. This course will expose law enforcement, fire, and rescue personnel operating in a warm zone environment to Tactical Emergency Casualty Care lessons so that all participants can provide appropriate point of wounding care. For questions, please contact Stephanie Lash at CRITAC@theIACP.org or 703.647.7236.

To register for a workshop please visit:

April 14th, 2020: <https://training.ntoa.org/CourseRegistration/default.asp?num=20201910>

April 15th, 2020: <https://training.ntoa.org/CourseRegistration/default.asp?num=20201930>

The delivery of this training by the Collaborative Reform Initiative Technical Assistance Center (CRI-TAC) is provided through a Cooperative Agreement between the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Community Oriented Policing Services and the International Association of Chiefs of Police. CRI-TAC delivers customized technical assistance directly to local law enforcement and provides quick access to resources by the field, for the field. For more information about the CRI-TAC visit www.CollaborativeReform.org.

This project was supported, in whole or in part, by cooperative agreement number 2017CRWXK001 awarded by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Community Oriented Policing Services. The opinions contained herein are those of the author(s) or contributor(s) and do not necessarily represent the official or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice. References to specific individuals, agencies, companies, products, or services should not be considered an endorsement by the author(s) or the U.S. Department of Justice. Rather, the references are illustrations to supplement discussion of the issues.

