

Video Library
This is not a complete list

Title	Student	Materials	Description
Madison Heights	Literacy / ESL / GED	VCR, workbooks, teacher's guide	Madison Heights , the companion series to Lifelines , combines powerful and engaging dramas with correlated print materials to provide thought-provoking, meaningful, and motivating learning experiences for today's parent learner. Madison Heights was produced with funding support from nine state education agencies. Course components include: Ten (10) half-hour video lessons that are correlated to the Worktexts to provide thought-provoking, meaningful, and motivating learning experiences for today's parent learner; Worktext A is correlated to the Madison Heights episodes 1-5. Provides self paced parent-child activities, promotes problem solving, language development, math skills and more; Worktext B is correlated to the Madison Heights episodes 6-10; Teacher's Resource Book is designed for use as part of distance learning or classroom-based programs. Provides user friendly applications for both settings; reproducible masters provide teachers additional exercises and and activities. Includes a Read-On element to further the parent learners progress as well as exercises for LEP adults.
Lifelines	Literacy / ESL / GED	VCR, workbooks, teacher's guide	Lifelines is a video and print series for family literacy and adult education. Powerful documentary videos with correlated print materials provide thought-provoking, meaningful, and motivating learning experiences for today's parent learner. Lifelines was produced with funding support from nine state education agencies and the U.S. Department of Education OESE. Course components include: ten-part documentary videos series - inspiring stories of families working together provide meaningful, and motivating learning experiences for today's parent learner; Worktext A correlated to video episodes 1-5, providing parent/child activities and adult learning materials which enhance problem solving skills, language development, basic math, parenting skills, and education in their role as the child's first teacher; Worktext B correlated to video episodes 6-10; Teacher's Resource Book for use with Worktext A and B, the Teacher's Resource Book is designed for use as part of distance learning or classroom-based programs. Provides user friendly applications for both settings; Reproducible Masters correlated to individual units, the reproducible masters provide teachers additional exercises and and activities. Includes a Read-On element to further the parent learners progress as well as exercises for LEP adults.
TV411 In Print	Literacy / ESL / GED / Math	VCR, workbooks, teacher's guide	A series of entertaining and educational videos and print materials to help improve reading, writing and math skills. It's filled with valuable tips, interesting information and useful hands-on practice to help prepare for a GED course or a college or technical course. Components include: Twenty (20) videos with correlated workbooks; teaching manual.