Model Horse
RE·VIEW

Vol. 6 No. 1 ~ Spring 2021

*Here to help ring in the spring are Sweet Adelaide and foal Strange Tayls! Once owned by the late Marney J. Walerius, godmother of the model horse hobby, this Draft Mule and her very rare offspring (mules are almost always infertile) were created from the Breyer Clydesdale Mare and Clydesdale Foal by Laura Rock-Smith in the mid-1980s. Watch for them in the VCMEC Museum!*

A Word to the Fore: Movin' Right Along!

Here we are in 2021! This is not only our sixth year of publishing "VCMEC Model Horse Re-View," but also, most importantly for the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center, the year we'll finally get where we're going!

Now that our long-awaited move is in sight, though, we actually won't be going where we originally planned. With difficulties in getting renovations done long-distance, compounded by COVID restrictions, time ran out in our five-year struggle to get our 121-year-old showplace in Battle Creek, Mich., rewired and up to code. Faced with fines for each day the work remained incomplete, we made the heartbreaking decision to sell.

But we're so grateful and excited about what happened next: We've been offered the use of a beautiful facility located in Wisconsin, next door to Michigan! Next month we'll move the portion of our belongings in storage in Michigan over to Wisconsin, and then in September will travel up from our temporary digs in Texas with the rest. We've got a 2022 grand opening for the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center in our sights--stay tuned!

We aren't sure yet how the September move will impact the Autumn "Re-View" issue, usually published at the end of that month; we should have a better idea by the time our Summer issue comes out at the end of June. In the meantime, here's our sizeable Spring 2021 issue--with the helpful addition of a Table of Contents!

In January, the model horse hobby lost two outstanding artists, Lynne Baum Von Mayr of Arizona and Linda Spiesschaert of Oregon. We're deeply appreciative to Lynne's husband Robert and Linda's daughter Lori for allowing us to publish the beautiful tributes they wrote.

With numbers bolstered by Holly Carson's ongoing dispersal of her landmark herd and the online auction of Linda (Kelly) Myron's estate, this issue's three-month gathering of fair market values of vintage customs sold at auction or for best offer includes data and photos of more than 100 horses sold--that's right, over 100 of 'em! Check 'em out!

We were stunned silly when Teresa Rogers sent us a surprise package for the VCMEC Museum: a sharp Linda Kelly creation, along with the provenance Linda made for him, and two photos of Linda herself! Thank you so much again for your wonderful donation, Teresa!

Also featured this issue are the result of the second leg of the 2020-21 VCMEC Online World Championships. Thanks so much to Linda Watson Gresham, herself a longtime top artist in the hobby, for judging as well as sharing her memories and observations along the way!

Speaking of "along the way," life threw us a few curves during the making of this issue--among them a freak snow-and-icestorm that knocked out our running water for five days--but I've got just myself to blame for again leaving a photo of a champion out of the show results. This time it happened in the 1990s Breed division's Sport Breed championships, with the photos of champ Quick Comet and reserve Sioux City Slew omitted. Once the error was caught, all but this page you're reading was done. Both are my horses, so, will just direct you to our front cover's masthead to see Quick Comet--that's Sue Sudekum's drawing of her in the "VCMEC Model Horse Re-View" logo Sue designed!--and have shoehorned in Sioux City Slew's photo below; it's a lovely image taken by his former owner, Carol Heuermann-Fitch.

Enjoy the issue, and we'll be back in June with the sure-to-be spectacle of our move from Michigan to Wisconsin!

Lynne Baum Von Mayr

March 4, 1961 - January 14, 2021

by Robert Von Mayr

Lynne passed away in my arms last evening, her race run and her final battle fought.

She has been hospitalized for most of the last two-and-a-half months--spending two weeks in, being released, spending a few days at home, then being re-admitted for new issues. Wednesday night she had an emergency colectomy, but she slid away during the day today and I complied with her end-of-life wishes, which we had discussed many times and clearly documented in her living will.

Lynne has been in failing health for quite some time, including dialysis for the last 17 months, but was a determined fighter who plowed through the issues of the day, always looking for what the next step was to improved health. She was a warrior--I am unsure whether I have that same fight in me, and pray to all that is holy that I never have to find out.

The five days between these last hospitalizations were good ones--Lynne had been back to her old self for about seven months now, and we had lots of good conversations and time together.

We have been married/together for over 25 years now--she was a good fire to my ice, a passionate person about the things she cared most about, especially her dogs and horses, both live and inanimate. We put up with each other's shit, and never tried to change the other person (well, much anyways). We built a good life together and were always faithful and friends with each other--the friendship came first and carried us through some hard times.

Ross Von Mayr was able to spend some time with me and his mom this afternoon--she was lucid and able to communicate while she was on the ventilator, and we hugged, cried, kissed and held hands as a family as unconsciousness took her after the ventilator was removed.

Love you always, my dear. Glad that you

"Such a deep loss....I never had the pleasure of meeting her in person but we did correspond a little bit regarding a little foal that she created [The Kryptonite Kid, left] that was given to me by a very dear friend of mine years ago. My deepest and sincerest condolences to her family and friends."
--Irene Lynne Conrad

"I knew Lynne when she was Lynne Baum. A talented model horse artist and a very nice person."
--Allie Davidson

"So sad. Lynne was

are no longer in pain, and I know you are hugging and kissing all the Paradox Dalmatians who were waiting for you at the Bridge.

Hobbyists Remember Lynne

by Corky Visminas

Model hobbyists were stunned to hear of the passing of Lynne Baum Von Mayr. Here is a selection of comments made on Facebook posts :

"So sad to hear. She was truly iconic in the hobby." --Laura Brown

"Her work is exquisite, and has wowed me ever since I first saw it in a 1984 issue of Model Horse Gazette--I was sure her creation *Nariadneia [right] was a real horse! About a decade later, Lynne graciously donated a beautiful cantering rose grey Arabian mare to the inaugural NAN Auction, where I served as auctioneer. I was lucky to acquire that mare a few years ago; she's named Love Live Alive [top left on next page], and always reminds me of Lynne's generosity." --Ardith Carlton talented and friendly. She will be missed in the community." --Laurel Dedes

"Lynne was such a great presence at our Colorado Springs shows. She was the only one making string manes and tails! The hobby is missing a wonderful artist and Dalmatian lover."

Flame's Fire-R/R PAS owned by Tina Orth
*Nariadneia-R/R PAM owned by Kimberly Harvey

--Nancy De ment

"I have one of her pieces, perhaps two, and loved her work."
--Danelle Gatcombe

"Lynne [was] one of the first people to introduce me to the hobby. My condolences to her family." --Lisa Herndon

"I'm so sorry to read this. A real loss to the model horse hobby and the world itself." --Betty Hook (owner of Lynne's creation Gentleman John, below)

"I'm in shock. So sad." --Laurie Jo Jensen

"I have one of her vintage pieces that I think needs to come back out of storage now. Prayers to the family." --Heather Kapica

"Lynne was a super artist and a neat lady. She will be missed." --Candace Liddy

"Oh wow, that is so sad. I never got to meet her in

"I had no idea! I remember back in the days when she used to live show here in Dallas/Fort Worth. Godspeed, Lynne!" --Cynthia McMahon

"Such a shame for her family. She was a talent." --Beth Peart

"The string mane and tail QUEEN. So sad."--Julie Propes

"RIP Lynne. I treasure my little guy (ex Little Bit Unicorn [Ima Believer, top right])!" --Cheryl Ridge

"I have two beautiful pieces she did [including 1986 creation Cyra Kadin, in red halter at right] and they are very treasured. May she rest in peace and may her light live on in her memories." --Anne Rodenberg

"I am sad to hear-- was just looking at her work in older magazines and thinking of Paradox Dalmatians. Condolences to her family and friends."--Shannon Rodgers

"She was very talented, and I know she will be missed."--Teresa Rogers

"Two of the first customs I owned by other people were by her. I did a portrait of one of her Dalmatians--Paradise Peerless Panda--for her in partial trade. That was in like, um...'84? So sorry to hear of her loss."--Lisa Shepard

"I remember her well, and her talent will be missed in the hobby. Deepest sympathy to her family and the rest of us who knew her through both model horses and the dog fancy....She was very much a presence in her DFW days. She was not only an excellent artist, but a good restorer of resins as well!"--Sue Stewart

"I've only got one piece by her [Banjo Eyes, lower left], loved her style. We weren't even acquaintances in the hobby, but she had Dalmatians and that's enough for me. So sad." --Sue Sudekum

"I only own one model by her [Cherokee Tears, right]. So sad to hear this news." --Anita Poole

"She was a big part of the hobby and her work was person but I did by email years ago, when I got a lovely little Warmblood Stablemate done by her [Under The Milky Way, right]. She was an amazing artist and person." --Andrea Lockhart

"I'm grateful to own two Stablemate customs by Lynne, and my heart and kindest thoughts go out to her family and to those that knew her." --Sophie Nicol

"You [Robert Von Mayr] have given us all some touching words to think about as we remember her. Here is Guaranteed Gold, a Stablemate custom done by Lynne in the late 1980s or early 1990s. She did her trademark thread mane and tail. He is still LSQ after all these years." --Jane Morehouse amazing. She will be greatly missed." --Lynda Strohmeier Gillette

"A sad day indeed. She was an asset to our hobby."--Brenda Suiter

"So sad to read this, but glad that she was comforted by such a loving husband/friend at the end. RIP Lynne, you were loved and will be missed." --Jane Varin

"I didn't know she'd had such tough times. Lynne was a sweet lady. Prayers for her family." --Daralyn Wallace

"I am so sad to read this." --Josie Uschi Genu (owner of Summer Sazzy, right)

"So sad to hear. Lynne was incredibly gifted." --Chris Wallbruch

"I had no idea she was so sick. She was always so nice to me and I loved her and her work. My heart, thoughts and prayers go out to her family and friends and us who loved her."--Kim Wandrey

"Very sad. She was a great artist. r.i.p." --Monika Werner

Linda Spiesschaert and the history of Kitchen Table Stables

by Lori Spiesschaert

Born Linda Miklia in 1943, she had a love affair with horses her entire life. She started drawing and painting horses in the 1950s while she was still in middle school, and submitted her work to local art contests. She carved her first horse out of balsa wood while in high school, using the thread from a silk scarf to make the mane and tail.

As she got older her love of horses only grew stronger. She bought her first "real" horse just out of high school. All she wanted to do was ride. She enjoyed taking dressage lessons, competing in local stock horse competitions, western pleasure and trail classes.

Riding eventually led her to meet the man who would become her husband of 51 years, Darrel. As their family grew, their lives centered around horses and riding. Both of their children learned to ride as soon as they were able to walk. They went to rodeos and gaming shows and enjoyed trail riding, hunting and team roping. Later she became a leader for their local 4-H club. During that time she decided to put her sewing skills to good use—she made authentic Native American costumes for the entire 4-H club (and their horses), and as a result the club won several trophies for best costume in various parades around the county.

In the mid-'80s Linda caught the model horse bug. She was riding less and less due to painful arthritis in her back, hips and knees. She saw the model horse world as a way to continue with her love of horses, just in a different way. She bought broken Breyers at garage sales for sometimes as little as 50 cents each and sat for hours at the kitchen table, carving and sanding, cutting and reforming the horses to match the visions she had in her head from all the years she spent day-dreaming about horses as a kid.

She used her painting and sewing skills to make her horses and tack into life-like representations and true works of art. Her tack was functional, making sure the scale was always correct for the size of horse she was working with. She learned to work with leather, and using her antique treadle sewing machine she made saddles, piece by piece, including miniscule decorative stitching. She used suede for the seats of her western saddles and jewels from old watches as decorations on some of her saddles and bridles. She made and copyrighted her own saddle trees. She made cinches out of thread. She learned to stamp and tool the thinnest and finest leather she could find, and stain it any color she wanted.

She was so detail-oriented that every buckle and keeper had to work, no matter how small. She carved out the mouths, ears and frogs of each horse, used glass eyes and glued on eyelashes. She learned how to shape and emphasize the correct veins and muscles on a horse in motion. She learned to use an airbrush to add shading and dimension. She researched Arabian and Indian costumes and re-made them into historically accurate representations.

Every day she learned a new way to make her horses and tack look as real as possible. She started making friends with others who had also caught the model horse bug, and attended local model horse shows to meet more people who shared her passion. At first it was just for fun, but as the years went on more and more people started to take notice of her work. People wanted to buy the things she made. And, since it's where she spent a majority of her time, Kitchen Table Stables was born.

For 20-plus years Linda enjoyed working with model horses. She traveled all over the country attending big model horse shows, even as far as Florida, and she consistently won each division she entered. She sold her work faster than she could make it.

Unfortunately, time and arthritis worked against her. She got to the point that it was so bad, she could no longer carve plastic or tool leather. Most of her work was sold off, with the exception of a few of her first creations and favorite pieces. In 2014 she was diagnosed with severe Alzheimer's, and in 2018 her family made the difficult decision to move her into a memory care facility where she could be cared for 24/7.

She was put on hospice May 2, 2020, and lost her battle January 2, 2021. She was one week shy of her 78th birthday.

Linda's talent was truly unique. There are very few artists who have been able to achieve the level of realism she put into every piece she made. She was kind and gentle, and made friends everywhere she went. She's missed deeply by all those who knew her.

Heartfelt thanks to Teresa Rogers!

We were floored to receive this beautiful donation for the VCMEC Museum from Teresa Rogers: Annie's Leo, customized by Linda Kelly (Myron) in 1979, along with two photos of Linda and the provenance she created for this personable guy! Teresa, thank you so, so much for this wonderful surprise (we admit it, we cried!) with the makings for Linda to be represented in the VCMEC Museum.

Judge's Choice!

Judge Linda Watson Gresham awarded several Judge's Choice titles. Enjoy!

1960s/'70s BREED DIVISION: TRANSMUTE CONDOR (AC)

Arabian/POA/Welsh Sec. A stallion ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

Linda writes, "I have to admit that I am a big fan of Nancy Strowger's work and one of my favorite molds is the Classic Arab Stallion. This particular combination with the eye-catching Appaloosa coloring makes him my pick for Judge's Choice. Of course, almost any of the Maureen Love sculpts in vintage customs are, in my mind, some of the most 'classic' (sort of punny right there) customs out there. As a vintage customizer myself, the CAS was always one of my most favorite victims to work on."

1960s/'70s BREED DIVISION: SOLAR QUEEN (CH)

3/4-Arabian, 1/4-Mustang mare ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

Linda writes, "Why? Well, because! She's a lovely Hagen-Renaker painted in a wonderfully classy black and white pinto pattern. Gosh, I can remember when painting HRs was the thing to do...they were different than the regular Breyers and were usually inexpensive. You could modify them slightly (enhance their faces or manes/tails) and have a standout champion-contender for the show ring. And Solar Queen is all of that and more. She invokes a lot of fond memories of model horse showing in this era."

1980s BREED DIVISION: PENNY DREADFUL

American Modern Shetland mare ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1987

Linda writes, "Gosh...this was a tough division to judge. Any one of the champions could be the Grand...they are just that amazing. There are so many 'familiar faces,' some I've owned in the past (some of these with new names), some I've judged in the past, and some I had only heard about. This decade was a changing of the guard, it seemed. As I was walking down memory lane, I noticed less of the artists from the '60s and '70s, and new artists coming on board. It is a fascinating history lesson in our model horse hobby."

1990s BREED DIVISION:
GOLDEN MALICIOUS (SM)

Quarter Horse mare ~ CM by Sarah King in 1991

Linda writes, "What I really like about the '90s is that the artists that have been doing this for the past 20+ years have started to perfect their techniques. Couple that with the newer components/supplies available—the newer putties for instance—and the availability of reference documents, the hobby has really started to become more accurate in anatomy and more artistic with the available supplies. For my Judge's Choice for this category, I chose Golden Malicious. There isn't a lot of remaking going on with this lovely piece, but the paint job and its techniques (shading, blending, color use) is among the best from the artist...in my opinion, lol. And this particular Breyer model is a great representative of the stock breeds."

1990s COLOR DIVISION:
TS DRAGON KNIGHT (MP)

Pinzgauer-Noriker stallion ~ CM by Marie Spinella (Phillips) in 1993

Linda writes, "I just really love everything about this beautiful model. His color is dramatic and well executed. The rest of his 'package' just makes him a great example of the artist's work.

"With the above said, it gets me to musing about how each artist has a definite style, and in the '90s these styles got more distinct and evolved due to the new supplies and tools available."

1990s WORKMANSHIP DIVISION:
AMERICAN BEAUTY (CH)

National Show Horse mare ~ CM by Adren King & Jason Ross in 1991

Linda writes, "I chose this particular model this time as my judge's choice because while I am a fan of this particular artist, this particular piece is dramatic and dynamic for a smaller piece. The workmanship is neatly done; the paintwork is nicely executed; and the hairing is flowing neatly. Such a lot of 'wow factor' in a smaller piece."

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

*THE RAISULI

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Beth Peart (remake) and Nancy

Strowger (repaint/thread mane/tail) in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color and Workmanship

Colleen Headley writes, "I am running out of things to say about this lovely stallion....so I say thank you to all of those who have judged him and found him worthy of his placings. I have to hope that Ava Durbin, who willed him to me, would be so excited by the reception he has received here that she would smile as brightly as I do when getting show results. His painter, Nancy Strowger, also wants to say thank you for the reception he has received from you. He is precious to her as well."

ATTN EVILDOERS

Thoroughbred stallion ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton shared her thoughts on this handsome fellow in the Autumn 2019 issue--check it out in our free archive at <http://www.vcmec.org/vcmec-model-horse-re-view-issues.html> !

SAGE WIND

Appaloosa stallion ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve
Champion Breed

Colleen Headley writes, "Sage Wind is a very subtle fellow for an Appaloosa, seeming blends of earthtones in this Nancy Strowger repaint. He caught me quite by surprise the first time I judged him in a photo show and he was instantly on my 'if he's ever for sale' list. I consider myself fortunate that I was able to purchase him and have enjoyed his soft shadings, large lovely eyes and overall charm ever since. I keep looking at him and he only gets better in my eyes."

DANE TYLER BENNINGTON

Morgan stallion ~ CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the late 1970s
1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Lois Bennington writes, "Dane Tyler just keeps winning! For a vintage his age, he is in wonderful condition. He was repainted/haired by Laura Hornick-Behning. I think his unusual deep chestnut color is part of his appeal. Many thanks to the judges who see in him, what I see in him!"

TRANSMUTE CONDOR

Arabian/POA/Welsh Sec. A stallion ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978
1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Liz Bouras once assessed this treasure as one of Nancy Strowger's nicest works. I'm so grateful to have become his new caretaker when Liz parted with him in 2012! Here he is with his beautiful winnings at A Good Vintage IV in 2017, after riding in the plane cabin with me from Tokyo to Lexington. I'm so happy he's doing well in VCMEC, too!"

JAMIL MHURATT

Arabian stallion~CM by Sarah Minkiewicz(-Breunig) in the late 1980s
1980s Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship

Cheryl Ridge writes, "The Elite Decorations Reworkers Review photo show in 1988 became an important part of model horse history for me. There was Jamil Mhuratt in the results: 1st or 2nd place in classes that had several hundred entries! A black-and-white photocopy picture depicted a remade Breyer Proud Arab Stallion with flagged tail and resting (restless?) leg. I could imagine him blowing and bouncing right off the results pages."

"I was spellbound by two greys: him and a CM Proud Arab Mare who had been entered by newcomer Sarah Minkiewicz. Before long I was mailing letters off to the USA and was enjoying Sarah's replies. But alas, she was not parting with these two beauties! (Fun fact: Jamil Mhuratt and his sister Mon' Nafa Rani--created in 1988--are from Sarah's early body of work.)"

"By late 1989 Mon' Nafa Rani was jetting her way to me in Australia. In 1991 I was standing in a friend's house in Germany, and a 'mock' negotiation was underway for my Rani. Several hundred dollars 'fur die Minkiewicz'? I jested that I'd need a Wim V Beelen Arabian sculpture AND several hundred dollars to part with 'die Minkiewicz.' No deal. Ironically, my friend in Germany later ended up acquiring Jamil Mhuratt!"

"Fast forward to 2005: I received an email out of the blue from Germany. Asking if I'd like to buy Jamil Mhuratt. You can guess my answer. So Jamil was on his way to Australia to a new home with me and reunited with his sister, Mon' Nafa Rani. Jamil's arrival down under coincided with my hiatus from the hobby. And time out when Jamil was returned to Sarah for some TLC. Three continents, four owners, very little showing. His time would come."

"My gratitude to VCMEC for being the perfect platform to showcase Jamil Mhuratt. I am delighted to have him honored and appreciated by judges and vintage enthusiasts alike. Thank you."

ARAHAEL

Arabian stallion~CM by Jason Ross in 1986
1980s Overall Champion Color

Lois Bennington writes, "Anyone who sees a picture of Arahael can tell why he stood out to me on a table stuffed with model horses of various types. The first I saw him was at Kay McCue's estate auction and he took my breath away. Arahael was repainted by Jason Ross. I'm very glad he came home with me that day!"

DARK COMMANDER

American Saddlebred stallion ~ CM by Adren King (remake) and Jason Ross (repaint/hair) in 1986

1980s Overall Res. Champion Breed

Colleen Headley writes, "Figuring what to say about Dark Commander kinda went like this:

"Me...thinking....then Dark Commander looks over my left shoulder.

""Snort.....what're you doing?"

"Trying to write something about you.

"His eyes brighten and he snorts again-- 'Tell them I'm beautiful!"

"I can't say that!!

"Stomp, snort! Then SNORT!!

"I can't exactly say you're humble either...

"Life with a Saddlebred peacock :-)"

TONY HARKEN

Paso Fino stallion ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1983

1980s Overall Res. Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "The Fates were mighty kind to me on Christmas Eve 2016, when a hobbyist decided to take offers on a CM horse she'd gotten with a box lot of OF models from someone who said she'd been given the haired palomino as a gift when she was a child. My offer was accepted, and Tony has been a treasured member of my herd ever since!"

FOX MAIDEN

Arabian mare ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1983

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "When sisters Jeanne and Barbara McCullough decided to downsize their high-powered herd in 2012, Corky and I were thrilled to buy a stellar group of five of their Julie Froelich creations, led by Fox Maiden. (The others, also showing in VCMEC, are Waters Under Earth, My Soul Journey, Goldwillow, and Bean Bandit.) Fox Maiden was the mate of the legendary grey RM Frostfire, who the McCulloughs couldn't bear to part with. It would be wonderful to reunite them one day. When I tried to write Jeanne last year, though, her email account no longer existed. Here's hoping Jeanne and Barbara are safe and well!"

WALAD

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Sophie Nordstrom in 1997

1990s Overall Res. Champion Color

Sophie Nordstrom writes, "Walad started his life in 1991-1992. From the beginning he was steel grey with white mane and tail. I showed him a lot and he was extremely successful in not only Sweden, but many other countries as well. In 1997 I decided to redo him as he was, what I felt, 'outdated.' The result is what you can see today. I later sold him to a dear friend of mine as I was going to stop collecting Arabians... Years passed and I lost contact with my friend, and Walad.

"In 2013 I stumbled over some photos of Walad and I wondered where he was as he really is one of those that I have made myself that I really love. Thanks to the vintage group on Facebook I found him again. He was now owned by another very dear friend of mine in the States! I asked her if she would consider selling him to me, and she agreed, so in 2013 Walad came back to Sweden and me. He will never ever be sold again and he resides with all his eight 'wives' (PAM customs) on my shelf."
