Enter Arthur (Art) Heneault, the owner of Premium Cabinet Wholesalers. Art entered the kitchen-design market in 2011. He wanted to establish a business that would not only allow him to use his talents to make other people's homes more beautiful, but a company that gave homeowners a truly affordable, quality choice for home cabinetry. His business model is simple; offer high quality semi-custom cabinets, keep prices very low, provide unique and creative designs, and above all treat customers like family. With that philosophy, Art quickly earned a reputation as a fair and honest businessman with an abundance of creativity and a big heart! In October of 2012, Art asked his Pastor to bless his store. Today, Art has a thriving business, with stores in Leominster and Marlboro, MA with a third store opening this fall in Manchester, NH.

Premium Cabinet Wholesalers designs their kitchens and baths with several brands of cabinetry, one of which is Waypoint Living Spaces. Waypoint builds their cabinets with American pride and craftsmanship. All of the solid wood used in their cabinets is harvested from the Allegany Mountain in West Virginia. With craftsmanship such as dovetail drawer construction, cushion close drawers, and kiln-dried face frames...this cabinetry is built to last. The construction of their cabinets meets or exceeds the rigorous standards set by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) and by the Kitchen Cabinet Manufacturers Association (KCMA). They also have the KCMA seal to confirm it and a limited lifetime warranty to guarantee it! What's more, Waypoint complies with KCMA standards under the Environmental Stewardship Program. All these business choices and more are the reasons Art chose Waypoint as their preferred vendor of semi-custom cabinetry. In this day and age of products imported from around the world and from countries that have various standards, Art wanted to offer his customers the security of knowing their cabinets are made in America, by Americans, with American solid wood, and in compliance to all US standards that help keep consumers safe.

But that's not all. Because Art believes each customer becomes part of his extended family, service does not end once a customer places an order. If during installation problems arise, albeit rare, customers deal directly with Art. He will fix whatever issues there are and handle all concerns promptly. So say goodbye to red tape, endless threads of voice recorded messages, being put on hold, pacified, or any other forms of evasion...Art Heneault has your back.
