The Seventh Sunday of Easter

The ASCENSION of the LORD

In the opening lines of the Acts of the Apostles, the second volume of his Gospel, Luke describes the disciples' 50-day period of learning the meaning of the Resurrection. For 40 of those days, the risen Jesus made himself known to them, revealing that he had passed through death and teaching them again what he had always taught: "The reign of God is among you" (Luke 17:21).

Saint Paul Catholic Center welcomes our new Our Lady of Grace Statue. Purchased with activity funding and placed in our church last Thursday, May 19th.

Her image is a rendering from an Italian artist's drawing, and hand crafted and hand painted honoring the beauty and character of the fabulous wood statues of old.

The former statue of our Holy Mother, donated by Carrie Davis will be placed in a grotto in her honor in front of our church facing Main Street in the near future.

BLAZE SET AT ICONIC MEXICAN CHURCH; EUCHARIST STOLEN FROM ANOTHER

In a statement published May 15, Father Efrén Silva Plascencia, spokesman for the diocese, said that the fire "was set on the exterior by a male person who arrived outside the church at 1:04 a.m. and left at 1:26 a.m. Silva pointed out that the Church of Santiaguito, whose origins date back to the 17th century, is one of the "most emblematic and iconic" in the region.

"In another sacrilege, the Eucharist was stolen from the tabernacle of the Lord of the Harvest chapel, administered by St. Luke the Evangelist Parish in the Progreso neighborhood of the town of Jiutepec, about 60 miles south of Mexico City.

Canon 1367 of the Code of Canon Law states: "A person who throws away the consecrated species or takes or retains them for a sacrilegious purpose incurs a latae sententiae (automatic) excommunication reserved to the Apostolic See."
