Table Lodge

September 8th

6:00pm

Lebanon will be holding a Table Lodge in the Dining Room on Saturday, September 8th at 6:00pm

The Table Lodge will coincide with the exhibition of George Washington's Bible.

Lebanon Lodge will display the actual Bible upon which, George Washington took his three Blue Lodge obligations.

The Table Lodge will open promptly at 6:00. At that time, in order to secure the Table Lodge, the dining hall will be off-limits to anyone who is not an EA or higher and the elevator will be locked on the second floor. The fire escape and the front door will remain open.

The dress code for the Table Lodge is tuxedo or coat and tie. Please contact WM Patrick Dugan if you wish to request a dress code variation.

George Washington's Bible will be available for viewing from noon until 5:30pm. Non-masons are welcome to come during this time.

ANNUAL PIG ROAST

September 29th

Starts at noon

Caesar's Creek

Hopewell Day Lodge

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Welcome back! I hope you took advantage of our summer break.

Although we have put most of our Eastern Star activities on the back burner for a couple of months, news still happens. Unfortunately, we lost two members in June. Harold Wells passed away on June 13th, leaving behind his wife, Peggy. Eastern Star and Masonic services were conducted at the Stine Funeral Home in Lebanon. We also lost Robert "Bob" Steinbuch on June 24th. Bob leaves behind his wife, Imojean who currently holds the station of Martha and is a former Deputy Grand Matron. Eastern Star and Masonic Services were conducted at Shorten & Ryan Funeral Home in Mason.

Our district held its first August annual meeting. In February, we voted to change the district by-laws to align with the calendars of the Grand Chapter as well as the subordinate chapters. As a result, we held our elections in August. The district officers are installed but won't assume their responsibilities until the week after Grand Chapter. The new district officers are President, Karen Oyer; Vice President, Joyce Horner; Secretary, Linda Rulon and Treasurer, Troy Fugate (who may be our first district officer of the masculine persuasion.)

Now that we're into the month of September, we are already rolling out lots of activities to mark on your calendars.

This Saturday, George Washington's Bible will be at the lodge from 12-5:30 to see. Definitely this is a once in a lifetime opportunity to see his Bible in our own lodge!

This Sunday, September 9th, will be a reception for our Deputy Grand Matron, Robyn Redfern. The reception will be hosted by Miami Chapter at their lodge in Waynesville. The reception begins at 3pm so take a short trip to Waynesville to support our Deputy Grand Matron of Southwest Team #3.

Harmony Circle will have their first meeting after the break on September 11th. We will have plenty to discuss in preparation for our stated meeting on September 18th. We will be honoring our Past Matrons and Past Patrons that night as well. Dinner will start at 6:30. I understand we may have some entertainment that evening too.

Naturally, we can't discuss September events without mentioning Grand Chapter in Kalahari, located in Sandusky. Grand Chapter will run from September 28th through the 30th. I hope to see you there!

You will want to mark your calendars for October 20th. Sheila Kitchens, our Worthy Matron-elect will be having her installation at 3pm complete with Honorary Installing Officers. It will be an installation you will not want to miss!

See you soon in Chapter!

Yours in Star,

Cindy Fugate

Worthy Matron

Famous Mason Birthdays in September

Johann Christian Bach (September 5, 1735 - January 1, 1782) was the youngest of Johann Sebastian Bach's four sons. Musician and composer Johann Christian was known as the English Bach. In 1760, he was appointed organist of Milan Cathedral and in 1762, he became composer to the King's Theatre in London. Later he was music master to Queen Charlotte and her children.

Peter Sellers (September 8, 1925 - July 24, 1980) was born Richard Henry, but called Peter by his parents in memory of an older brother. Peter Sellers was a major entertainment presence in the 1960s and 70s, appearing in over 60 films as well as on numerous radio and television shows.

One of the BBC Radio comedy team on The Goon Show (1951-1960), Peter Sellers had his first major film role in I'm All Right Jack (1959). He is remembered for his Oscar nominated multiple roles in Stanley Kubrick's Dr. Strangelove (1964), his role in Woody Allen's first film What's New Pussycat (1965), and his character, Inspector Clouseau in six Pink Panther movies directed by Blake Edwards. His portrayal of Chauncey Gardener in Being There (1979) gave him his second Oscar nomination.

James Cash Penney (September 16, 1875 - February 12, 1971) opened his first department store on April 14, 1902. J.C. Penney went public in 1927, giving all his store managers shares and later included all his employees in corporate profit-sharing. By 1971 J.C. Penney's had 1660 stores in North America. In 1957, Penney became a charter member of the Distributive Education Clubs of America, helped found and funded Junior Achievement Clubs, and endowed a chair at Westminster College in Missouri. A few years before his death he donated his Guernsey herd and a large endowment to the University of Missouri for the support of improved dairy farming.

Gene Autry (September 29, 1907 - October 2, 1998) was a singer, actor, producer and writer. Orvon Gene Autry was the first of the singing cowboys in film and on radio, appearing in almost a hundred films and making over 600 recordings. He is also the only person to date to receive five stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame for contributions in all five possible categories.

His most lasting legacy may be for penning the perennial Christmas favorites, "Here Comes Santa Claus" (1947), "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" (1949) and "Frosty the Snow Man" (1950).

His gravestone records that he was a 33rd Degree Mason.
