NYSUT retirees were urged to mobilize for the upcoming 2018 Congressional elections and to use their collective voting power to ensure their interests are protected.

Speaking to a room full of retirees attending NYSUT’s 46th annual Representative Assembly in Buffalo, Rich Fiesta, executive director for the Alliance for Retired Americans, outlined the damage the Trump White House and Republican-controlled Congress has wrought on the programs and values important to seniors.

Fiesta pointed to how the Trump tax plan dramatically shifts the nation’s wealth from the middle class to the wealthy, favors multi-billion-dollar corporations and hedge funds, and will increase the deficit by at least $1.5 trillion — thus squeezing Medicare and Medicaid. Meanwhile the federal budget, he added, eyes cuts to Social Security, Medicaid and heating assistance.

Fiesta noted that every Democratic member of the House and Senate from New York this year scored an ARA rating of 100 percent on issues important to seniors.

Meanwhile, not a single New York Republican scored above 50 percent — including House representatives Claudia Tenney, who was graded at just 10 percent, and Tom Reed who received a big, fat zero.

Still, over the span of the last four Congressional elections dating back to 2010, the majority of seniors nationwide voted Republican — and thus against their interests.

“The 2018 and 2020 races are going to be very important,” Fiesta said.

Mel Stern, a Long Island retiree, said he believes retirees can make a difference on election night and pointed to the successful Assembly race won by Long Island Democratic newcomer Christine Pellegrino last year.

“I’m an optimist. We can do this,” said Stern. “We did something (in getting Pellegrino elected) that they said we could never do. But we got the vote out and we won. And I think we have a really good chance to change things in Congress.”

From the President’s Desk…

Thanks to Margo Buckingham for writing this article.

Retiree Council 7’s fiscal year is July 1 through June 30. That means it’s time for you to pay your annual participation fee of $10. This modest fee supports the work that we do for our members throughout the year such as lobbying and participating in our union’s state and national governance. It also supports our newsletter, scholarships and donations to worthy local charities which help the area’s children.

Each year we have some members who are unclear about how and when to pay the participation fee. Checks should be mailed to our membership chair as soon as possible after July 1. Even if you are someone who did it later in the 2017/2018 year and it seems like you just paid, we are asking you to send your fee in July to get you back on the right schedule. It will make the jobs of the Membership Chair and Treasurer much easier and will take one item off your “to do” list.

We also continue to have people who submit their fee more than once, so let’s try this: In July when you mail your check, write “RC 7, paid 2108/2019” and the check number on your calendar. (Maybe even put a colored box around it to make it noticeable.) At the same time, on the December calendar page, write “RC 7 paid -> 6/30/19.” That way you will always know where to look if you don’t remember whether or not you have sent your fee to become a participating member of RC 7. And if you have a grandchild who might be applying for one of our scholarships, you won’t have to worry about the December deadline - job already done! The information will also be right there on the last calendar page and you can transfer it to July (for the next year) when you get your 2019 calendar.

We have also had questions about reminder cards. While some have been sent out in recent years, reminder cards for all is cost prohibitive. We have over 4000 members. Sending a card to each of them would cost over $1400. So to rely on our members to send in their fees in a timely way seems best. We thank you very much for your support.
