

The Unforgiving Servant

Read each sentence. If a sentence is true, put a T on the line. If it's false, put an F on the line. If it's false, how can you change the sentence to make it true?

- ___ 1 Peter asked Jesus how many times he should forgive someone.
- ___ 2 Jesus told Peter he should forgive someone three times.
- ___ 3 In Jesus' parable, a servant owed a king 10,000 bags of pennies.
- ___ 4 The king canceled the servant's debt and let the servant go.
- ___ 5 The servant found another servant who owed him $50.
- ___ 6 The first servant canceled the debt of the second servant who owed him money.
- ___ 7 The king told the first servant that he should have had mercy on the second servant.
- ___ 8 Jesus wants us to forgive others from our hearts.

Posts

➔ Read each post. Think these kids know about forgiveness?

ARE YOU

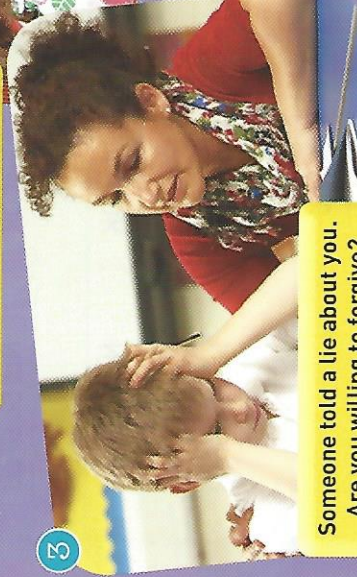

Think about these situations. How willing to forgive are you?

Someone was mean to you. Are you willing to forgive?
yes maybe no

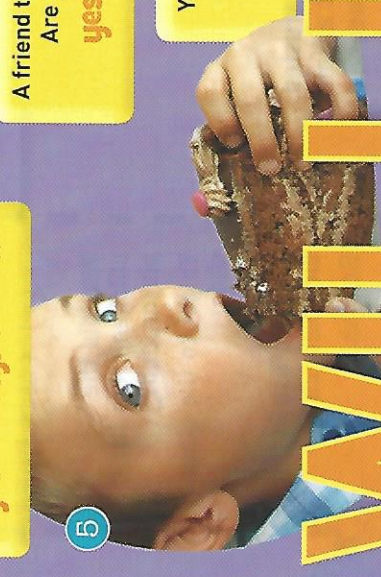

Someone gossiped about you. Are you willing to forgive?
yes maybe no

Someone told a lie about you. Are you willing to forgive?
yes maybe no

A friend took credit for work you did. Are you willing to forgive?
yes maybe no

Your brother ate the last piece of cake. Are you willing to forgive?
yes maybe no

WILLING?

Forgiveness Journal

Each day, ask yourself, How did I do in forgiving others? If you circle Really Well, praise God! If you circle Just OK, ask God for His help. If you circle Not So Great, think about why you're not forgiving others, and ask God for His help.

Sunday	Really Well	Just OK	Not So Great
Monday	Really Well	Just OK	Not So Great
Tuesday	Really Well	Just OK	Not So Great
Wednesday	Really Well	Just OK	Not So Great
Thursday	Really Well	Just OK	Not So Great
Friday	Really Well	Just OK	Not So Great
Saturday	Really Well	Just OK	Not So Great

Jokes! :)

Why did the chicken cross the playground?

To get to the other slide!

What do fish in the bleachers cheer?

Go Fish!!

fry THIS!

⇒ Ask a parent or other trusted adult to tell you about a time when they forgave someone.

⇒ MEMORIZE Luke 6:27, 28, 31.