

Best selling Author, John Foxjohn to host CAPL's Annual Book Review

Mark your calendars for Thursday, July 13, 2017, 2:00 pm, to make sure you won't miss this extraordinary guest author, John Foxjohn as the guest speaker for the Library's Annual Book Review, dessert party and silent auction. This annually anticipated event is sponsored by the Friends of the Library, and is their first fundraiser this year. The library invites you to come on out for an afternoon of gentility and camaraderie. This event takes place at Coldspring United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

Author Foxjohn will head up the festivities for an afternoon of entertainment, divine desserts leaving you clamoring for the recipe, and what better way to take home a souvenir but something from the silent auction with unique offerings! The cost is $10 for this adult venue, and you may even wear your fancy hats, ladies!

John Foxjohn, a Piney woods youngster straight out of East Texas can stake claims to best selling novels such as; Tattered Justice, Unbalanced, Killer Nurse, and Law Of Silence just to name a few. His fertile imagination is a result of his admiration of Crazy Horse, and fulfilling a long time dream of writing a book about the fabled Lakota War Chief—his first historical fiction was titled, The People's Warrior: a book about Crazy Horse, written after his retirement in law enforcement and a long tour as a homicide detective.

Foxjohn is an accomplished publisher, publishing his books in six different genres with a following from around the world. Come and hear, personally, his story of how his dreams fueled his ambition of becoming one of the rising stars in publishing today. If you are not already a follower of John Foxjohn, you will be after his book review! So, come on out and enjoy an afternoon and add a new author to your repertoire of favorite authors if you don't already have him on your list!
