MORNING:

Howard Carter: An Alternative View of the Man through his Art.

This Lecture tells the story of Carter the artist rather than the archaeologist and shows a full range of his work talking about making facsimiles of the art and the difficulties therein, and about the role of the artist.

AFTERNOON:

The Lure of the East: Artists and Epigraphers in Egypt.

This lecture will tell the story of the various travellers who ventured to the exotic land that was Egypt, from the time of Napoleon in the 18th century through to the 20th century.

They left us a veritable treasure trove of the recordings of their travels and adventures.

It will be a story of gentlemen travellers who took along an artist to act as a camera, of serious scholars who wanted to record as much as they could before it all disappeared, and of an influential 19th century group of artists called The Orientalists.

There will be many beautiful paintings shown, it will tell the stories of some of these intrepid pioneers, people like Giovanni Belzoni, John Bankes, John Gardner Wilkinson and Edward Lear of nonsense fame, and many more.

Buffet lunch with be a selection of finger foods, teas and coffee and dessert and will be served in a Meeting room next to the Browser café

There are also a number of cafés, pubs and eateries within walking distance.
