

About Mark Price

Act 1—Early Stage Work

Mark developed a love for performing at a very early age. His first experience was in elementary school in 1961. He sang "Do You Hear What I Here" as part of the school Christmas play – He was hooked. Mark has played roles in theaters around the country. The roles have ranged from Shakespeare's Sir Andrew Aguecheek (Twelfth Night), Mercutio (Romeo & Juliet), Prince Hal (King Henry IV, Part II) and Nick Bottom (A Midsummer Night's Dream) to Cyrano in Edmond Rostand's Cyrano de Bergerac. Mark is very proud of his first one man show – "Oscar Wilde – In His Own Words". A play written and performed by Mark beginning in 1975.

Act 2—Stand-Up Comedy

In the early to mid 1970's through 1979 Mark played in many of the nations comedy clubs. He enjoyed the experience of standing in front of an audience and working to make them laugh. In those early days of modern standup Mark had the great honor of performing on the same stage with people who have become incredible stars. He was lucky to see the very early work of Jay Leno, Robin Williams, Jimmie Walker, Freddie Prinze, to name a few.

Act 3 – Biblical Portrayals "In Their Own Words"

In 1983 Mark was encouraged by famed child actor Bobs Watson to combine his theater background with his faith based efforts. Since 1984 Mark has performed his Biblical Portrayals around the world in churches, halls and theaters. His performances have been translated into many different languages. In 2008 his Portrayal of Saint Paul "One Body, Many Parts – Saint Paul, In His Own Words" was filmed and shown in movie theaters nationwide.

In 2009 Judas Iscariot, Saint Joseph, Doubting Thomas and Simon Peter were filmed on location in the middle of the desert. These films/DVDs are due to be released in 2012.

About Saint Paul

Paul was born in Tarsus, Cilicia. He was a Jew, Pharisee who hated and persecuted the followers of Jesus. On his way to Damascus to arrest one group of followers, he was knocked to the ground and was blinded.

As an apostle he was imprisoned, flogged, and many times was near death. Five times he received the forty lashes minus one. Three times he was beaten with rods, once he was stoned, three times he was shipwrecked and for a night and a day he was adrift at sea. He was finally imprisoned in Rome and was beheaded.

This is a Bible-based theatrical presentation...
