

Just in time for the 150th Anniversary of the END of the Civil War at Appomattox!

A Historical Genealogical Memoir

BACK THERE, THEN

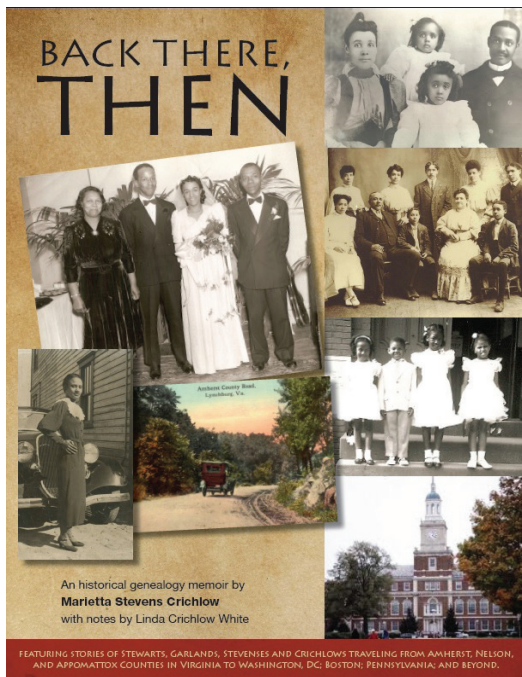

by Marietta Stevens Crichlow with notes by her daughter, Linda Crichlow White

Church of the Latter Day Saints
Family History Center

Saturday, September 19

9:30am

1000 Stonybrook Drive
Kensington, MD 20895

Recorded by native Washingtonian Marietta Crichlow, this book chronicles stories of some Glovers, Garlands, Stevens, Crichlows and others... beginning before the Civil War and tied to Appomattox County; Nelson and Amherst Counties; Lynchburg, Virginia, and continuing into the 20th century to Boston, MA; Duquesne, Pennsylvania, and Washington, DC.

Marietta and family are descended from people who were enslaved by Wilmer McLean at Appomattox Court House.

In the 20th century, Marietta's mother died when she was just 6 years old and she and her sister were sent to Duquesne, Pennsylvania to live with an aunt and her family... Marietta tells of some of the roads the family took over the years. Filled with lots of primary source documents, this book will provide YOU with ideas of how to document YOUR family history!

www.backtherethen.com

Published by Blackwell Press, Lynchburg, VA

Do you have a lot of family Memorabilia?

Photos? Old letters? Jewelry?

Join us on September 19 to get inspiration for using family memorabilia to chronicle your family story!

See reverse for directions to the Family History Center

Directions to the LDS (Latter Day Saints) Family History Center
10000 Stoneybrook Drive, Kensington, MD 20895

From DC or Maryland:

Take 410 (East West Highway) west to Jones Mill Road. Make a right onto Jones Mill Road. Take Jones Mill Road until the name changes to Stoneybrook Drive.

You will pass a Manor Care Nursing Home on the left....you will pass the Audubon Nature preserve. After you pass the Audubon Center, you will cross a bridge. Soon you should see the spires of the LDS Church on your left. Drive past the church until you see the Family History Center—the red brick building.

Enter here!

