

Houston Botanic Garden

Houston Botanic Garden Ticket Request

The South Texas Unit is a sponsor of Houston Botanic Garden located at:

One Botanic Lane (at 8210 Park Place Blvd)

Houston TX 77017

Hours: 9:00 am to 5:00 pm Monday-Sunday

The sponsorship includes 10 tickets daily to visit the gardens during stated hours. The South Texas Unit will have to request the tickets for the group. You cannot order the tickets yourself.

To check on available day and times to visit the gardens, go to their website www.hbg.org and click on "Get Tickets" The calendar will come up. Daily Admission is marked on the days that are available. Select two dates you would like as your choices.

Contact treasurer Maria Trevino with your first and second choice visit date at least three days or more in advance of when you would like to go. Let Maria know if you prefer the ticket receipt to be emailed to you or for her to email you the ticket number for check-in at the Admissions Center. maria@burger.com

You will need to show your HSA-STU member card to verify eligibility.

Note: In August 2023 Houston Botanic Garden (HBG) joined the American Horticulture Society's Reciprocal Admissions Program. Now you can show your membership card from The Herb Society of America to gain free admission to the HBG. This reciprocal admissions program enables members admission at over 345 gardens in America.

Extra fees for special events and classes apply. For these instances take advantage of our Cultivator Giving Circle discount by requesting a ticket from STU Treasurer as instructed above.