SPEAKER: Our speaker was Sherry Clayton from Cry for Freedom. This is a non-profit that works with girls that are involved in human trafficking. This was a most informative meeting. Sherry visits the girls in the jails and hotels trying to help them change their lives. They have a safehouse for the girls. They have a shop on Main Street in Roxboro that sells gift ideas, such as clothing, jewelry, pillows, artwork and much more. You can donate to them online by going to <https://www.cryfreedommissions.com/> Their headquarters are in Goldsboro.
