The book room will be closed for sales during the month of July. We will be cleaning and organizing and getting ready for another year of great sales. Sales will be back in August. We will be having a several training and work days in July instead. If you are interested in participating, please email us at woodlandfol@yahoo.com and we will include you on the email list. Or call us at 666-0545 and leave a message. We will get back to you once the dates have been determined.

New for next year, we are asking everyone to sign in when they come to work in the book room. Starting in July, there will be a clipboard for you to sign in with your name, how many hours you work and which sections you worked on. This will help us keep track of volunteer hours for the library (very helpful in grant writing) and also let us know where we need get some additional help.

If you've always wanted to get involved with the book sales, this is a great time to volunteer. And, of course, many heartfelt thanks to our current group of wonderful loyal sorters that keep us going!

“Every Hero Has a Story”

We are gearing up for the Summer Reading Program in the library as May draws to a close. Regular story times will continue throughout the summer, as well as a new evening story time on Thursdays at 6 PM where kids can wear their pajamas. The afterschool program will go on hiatus at the end of May for the summer, except for Lego Club, which will be moved to Saturdays.

The theme for the Summer Reading Program this year is “Every Hero Has a Story”, and the kickoff party for children will be on Saturday. June 6th at 1 PM on the South Lawn. We will have bounce houses, games, free hot dogs and popcorn, and Jamba Juice smoothies for $2. Kids can register for the free program starting on that day as well as throughout the summer.

Beginning on June 9th, there will be weekly Tuesday afternoon programs at 2 PM, with performers in the Leake Room or activities on the lawn. We have teen volunteers assisting with weekly programs and helping with the tickets and prizes throughout the summer.

There is something for everyone. Please join us.

It's free to read! And win!!

Author Meera Klein to speak at the Friends' Annual Meeting
Wednesday, June 11
5:30 pm in the Leake Center

The Friends of the Library annual membership meeting and author presentation will be held on Thursday, June 11, in the Leake Room at the Woodland Library, 250 First Street. You must be a member to attend this event. There will be membership applications and renewals available at the door. All new and renewing members whose applications are received before June 30, 2015 will receive a $5 book buck good at any FOL book sale in the upcoming year.

There will be a social "meet and greet" with the author starting at 5:30pm. Then there will be a short business meeting starting at 6:00, where the new officers will be installed. This will be followed by the author's presentation.

Meera Ekkannath Klein, author of the award-winning My Mother's Kitchen will speak. Ms. Klein, a resident of Northern California, honed her writing skills in a busy newsroom. She learned the art of Indian cooking from her mother while growing up in Southern India. My Mother's Kitchen combines these two skills to create a fascinating tale, which includes some wonderful Indian recipes. This novel was a finalist in the 2015 Beverly Hills International Book Awards in the multi-cultural category. This book has received praise from reviewers, such as Jonah Raskin, author of Field Days, A Year of Farming, Eating and Drinking Wine in California who noted:

"Meera Ekkannath Klein brings the rich flavors and the sumptuous tastes of India to life in her first book, My Mother's Kitchen. Part cookbook, part fiction, it introduces American readers to a world rarely glimpsed in the West. Klein offers easy-to-follow recipes and lifts the veil that has often concealed Indian life. Her memories of India, where she was born and raised, lift this book far above the ordinary. A must-read for mothers and daughters eager to try new spices, My Mother's Kitchen paints a portrait of an ancient culture of rare beauty and mouth-watering food."

Ms. Klein will speak, answer questions from the audience and offer attendees a sample of an appetizer from her book. Her books will be available for sale and signing (checks and cash only).

Please join us on Thursday, June 11, for this very special event! Meet your new officers for the upcoming 2015-2017 term, enjoy some delicious Indian food and drink and spend some time with your Friends. See FOL web site www.woodlandfol.org for more information.
