FLOGA Dance Troupe

The Greek dance groups at St. Spyridon have been part of the church community for many years. Teaching Greek dance to the youth of the church is a way to keep our customs and traditions alive and ensures that these special lessons will be passed down to future generation. Greek dance is also a positive approach to get the youth together, meet other people with similar interests and to build meaningful friendships. In 2017, Saint Spyridon formed a new Greek Dance Troupe called FLOGA. It is for young dancers 7th-12th grades, and the instructor is Mr. Angelo Angelos. With the help of the parish and some generous donors, the performers acquired their costumes from Greece. This year, all our dancers will have the chance to participate in the Midwest Hellenic Dance Festival on October 5th-7th. The registration for the MHDF is included in the tuition. Practices are on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. starting on September 12th. Annual Registration Fee: $200.

Iconography Seminar

Our Iconography seminar will once again welcome new and old students to learn how to make icons. Mr. Panagiotis Michalopoulos, a professional iconographer, is donating his time to teach both children and adults the art of iconography. The Registration Fee for this class is $100 for stewards of Saint Spyridon. Classes will be offered on Wednesday evenings starting on Wednesday, September 19th, at 6:00 p.m.

Bible Study

Religious Education is a lifelong undertaking for every Orthodox Christian. At Saint Spyridon, Religious Education classes have focused in the past on a variety of topics including the Divine Liturgy, the Creed, the Miracles and Parables of the Four Gospels, and much more. Our theme this year will be the Book of Acts which describes the early history of our Church and in which we discover the roots of our liturgical and spiritual life. Classes begin on September 19th. Wednesday Classes: 10:30 a.m. & 7:00 p.m.
