Transition Planning

Transition planning officially begins between the ages of 14 and 16 for most students with an IEP. However, the process is lifelong. This section of NTACT's website provides resources and tools to guide the process of transition planning - encompassing assessment and skill development to plan for success beyond school.

GETTING STARTED:

- Transition Planning Process
Resources to guide Transition Planning from elementary into post-secondary. Includes guidance documents and frameworks.
- Indicator 13
- Transition Assessment Toolkit
