CLASS DESCRIPTION

Glass Fusing 101 - You will learn glass fusing basics, including glass working safety, types of glass for fusing, preparing your kiln for firing, basic kiln operation, and glass cutting using a manual glass cutter and running pliers. Your Glass Fusing 101 project will be a fused glass window panel. Course fee is $65, plus applicable sales tax, and includes two hours of hands-on class instruction, plus all of the materials needed to make your custom fused glass window panel. Your fused glass window panel will be available for pick up the weekend following the class.

Glass Fusing 102 - You will learn about cutting squares and strips with a strip cutter, full fusing, slumping techniques and working with ceramic molds. Your Glass Fusing 102 project will be a fused and slumped snack plate with an added bonus! You will also learn basic wire wrapping while creating a matching beaded spreader! Course fee is $65, plus applicable sales tax, and includes two hours of hands-on classroom instruction, plus all of the materials needed to make your custom fused glass snack plate and matching spreader. Understanding of the basic techniques taught in Glass Fusing 101 is necessary for this class. Your fused glass snack plate will be available for pick up the weekend following the class, but you can take your spreader with you!

Glass Fusing 103 - You will learn about cutting circles, tack fusing, slumping techniques and working with stainless steel molds, plus some basic cold-working techniques to give your glass work a professional finish. Your Glass Fusing 103 project will be a fused and slumped glass vase. Course fee is $65, plus applicable sales tax, and includes two hours of hands-on classroom instruction, plus all of the materials needed to make your custom fused glass vase. Understanding of the basic techniques taught in Glass Fusing 101 and 102 is necessary for this class. Your fused glass vase will be available for pick up the weekend following the class.

Frit Casting - This is a fun one-hour session with no prior experience required! Course fee is $50, plus applicable sales tax, and includes a basic overview of the glass fusing process and all of the materials that you need to create your own one-of-a-kind frit cast serving board with an added bonus! You will also learn basic wire wrapping while creating a matching beaded spreader. Your serving board will be available for pick up the weekend following the class, but you can take your spreader with you!

Silk Painting - In this two-hour workshop, you will learn the art of silk painting while making your own one-of-a-kind 100% silk scarf! You will learn how to draw resist lines on silk, how to blend ink colors to create an endless variety of colors and effects, how to apply the dyes onto the silk, and how to set the dyes. Course fee is $45, plus applicable sales tax, and includes two hours of hands-on classroom instruction, plus all of the materials needed to make your custom 8" x 54" hand-painted silk scarf. If you've already learned the basics and just want to make a new scarf, you are welcome to join us and create! Your scarf will be available for pick up the weekend following the class.

Beaded Jewelry 101 - Why buy when you can make your own? In this fun and informative two-hour class, you will learn all about making your own one-of-a-kind beaded jewelry, including tools, stringing, jump rings, head pins, eye pins, clasps, bead caps, crimp beads, crimp bead covers, and more! Course fee is $50, plus applicable sales tax, and includes two hours of classroom instruction, plus all of the materials needed to make your very own custom, matching (or not) necklace and earring set!

Acrylic Pour Painting - Explore the addictive art of acrylic pour painting! Each session will feature a different pouring method (there are hundreds!), so you will learn something new each time you attend! Pick your colors and prepare to amaze yourself! Course fee is $30, plus applicable sales tax, and includes one hour of hands-on classroom instruction, plus all of the materials needed to make your very own 8x8 one-of-a-kind acrylic painting on canvas. Your masterpiece will be available for pick up the weekend following the class.

Acrylic Painting 101 - Learn the basics of acrylic painting while creating an 8x10 simple landscape. Topics to be covered include types of brushes and other painting tools, mediums and additives, color blending, and using color to create dimension and depth. The course fee for this two-hour class is $45, plus applicable tax, and includes all tools and materials needed to make your 8x10 painting.

Acrylic Painting 102 - Up your painting game with more advanced acrylic painting techniques like adding light and shadows, details in clouds, water and reflections on water, and perspective while painting a more advanced 8x10 landscape. The course fee for this two-hour class is $45, plus applicable tax, and includes all tools and materials needed to make your 8x10 painting.

Open Studio - This is your time to channel your inner artist and play! Glass Fusing 101, 102 and 103 are prerequisites if you want to do glasswork. Acrylic pour painting, silk painting and jewelry making are open to anyone who has taken at least one of the applicable classes listed above. The cost for glasswork depends on what you want to make (no additional charge for instruction)! See the price list at www.firedupfusedglass.com for glass options. Painting and jewelry cost will be based on the size of your substrate (canvas or silk), or the materials you plan to use in your jewelry.

Girls' Night Out - A fun evening out with the gals! We'll do these once a month and will feature a different project each month. The price for the project will generally range between $25-50, depending on what we'll be working on. Your suggestions on the project are encouraged! Bring a beverage and a snack of your choice and I'll provide the supplies and instruction for the project! This month's project is silk painting! Cost is $30 and includes a white 6x24 hobotai silk scarf (great for adorning your pony tail or purse) and all materials needed to make your very own one-of-a-kind hand-painted silk scarf.
