Fifth Sunday of Lent

Song Praise My Soul the King of Heaven Festival of Worship Choir

Opening Prayer: O God, the only source of life, in the beginning your breath and Spirit drew forth the world until the earth was filled with your creatures. At the last you breath shall gather us in, each in our time, to the shelter and mystery of your love. We praise you, God for the certainty that no matter what, we are sustained by your love in all times and in all places. Amen.

Prayer:

O God, we thank you for the signs that life continues; for brave crocuses rising from their winter graves, for the rains that nourish the fields, for the return of birds whose call wakes the day with praise. More than these, we cherish the promises of Jesus which grace our hearts like the spring sun. Because he lives, we also shall live. Fairest Lord Jesus, come visit us this day. Amen

Song Sweet Hour of Prayer Kathy Niguidula

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

The time is coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah. It won't be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant with me even though I was their partner, declares the Lord. No, this is the covenant that I will make with the people of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my instructions within them and engrave them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. They will no longer need to teach each other to say, "Know the Lord!" because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the Lord; for I will welcome them no matter what, and not remember their waywardness.

SEE BELOW! Yesterday, Saturday March 20 garden party. Yay!
So sorry I didn't send out a reminder beforehand! (My bad, Amy)

Thanks to some 15 volunteers this morning (7 from our church) we finished a big share of getting our Silvey plot ready to plant this spring and prep for composting debris for replacement soil. Others spread wood chips for better landscaping below the lower parking area. Timber Jim holds our "Hoe Lot of Good" 2020 traveling trophy given by Neighbors Nourishing Communities. Next Saturday the party continues 9-12 a.m. Today's helpers included several Scouts, gardeners who rent beds and interested neighbors. Many hands make light work!
