WORSHIP AND PRAYER

Everyday Stewardship

We talk about how we are called to live a stewardship way of life and that we have been given many good gifts, but it is never truly about us. We are never the main thing. In the same manner, it is never really about our parish. Our combined stewardship may lead to many fruits, like an increased offertory or more vibrancy in parish life. However, it is always about the Kingdom of God and the King, Jesus Christ.

Through our stewardship, we allow our parish community to shine like a city on a hill for others to see and then be drawn toward Jesus Christ. It is about leading people to heaven. Our actions of stewardship do not point toward us, but instead to the one who calls us to this life. Our constant prayer needs to be that we always seek to discern God's will and follow it instead of our own. By doing that, we can transform our own lives, our parish communities, and then the world around us.

MINISTRIES AND SACRAMENTS

Music Ministry
fzelinka@stpiustenthparish.org

Our singing at Mass is meant to invite all into to deeper prayer. Saint John Paul the 2nd said, "The criteria that must inspire every composition and performance of songs and sacred music is the beauty that invites prayer." It is by the beauty and sincerity of our prayer that we grow and that we attract others to come to Jesus. We don't often look at our participation in Mass as evangelization or witness to Christ, but let's shift our perspective to that of an outsider. Imagine if you came to a completely unknown church for the first time. You don't know anyone there and you don't really know anything about the church. The opening song starts and everyone around you begins to sing and praise God with joy, sincerity, and full voice. What a witness that would be! At every Mass there is someone who needs to be witnessed to in that way. Our participation at Mass is not only for our benefit but for the good of our brothers and sisters. Do not be afraid to step out of your comfort zone and insecurity to praise God with your whole heart, mind, and strength.

Diocesan Bite

Revelations 21:10-14, 22-23

"I saw no temple in the city for its temple is the Lord God almighty and the Lamb"

Patmos is a charming small island in the Aegean Sea between Greece and Turkey where the Book of Revelations was written by John. It is a letter addressed to the Seven Churches of Asia. John employs sinister images and applies coded references to people and groups to convey the beauty of the Love of God and to challenge disciples of Jesus to stay firm in the faith in the face of rejection and persecution. He taught that God was not confined to a building, the temple in Jerusalem. Rather, Jesus, the Lamb, and all who believe in Him and imitate Him, are temples. Jesus challenged the teaching and threatened the livelihood of the Jewish leaders. He also challenges us to believe in God as the source of all that we have and all ever will be. When we accept God's love for us and all that He has given us, and try to imitate Jesus, we must accept the consequences that may come with that.

Precious Blood Catholic Church annual Picnic will be held on Saturday, June 1. Booths open at 3 PM and serving begins at 4 PM. There will be a Drive-Thru again or eat-in available in air-conditioned Parish hall with a live band from 4-6 PM. Fun and prizes galore. This year's raffle includes a $7,500 cash prize.
