WORLD DAY OF PRAYER MARCH 1ST

The World Day of Prayer is observed annually on the first Friday in March. It is an invitation for Christians to pause and pray together ecumenically and recalls our Christian responsibility to be sensitive to the signs of the times so that we might bring a more authentically Christian dimension to the concerns of our world, our country, our community. Sponsored by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada and its national counterparts around the world, it is celebrated in approximately 165 countries.

Message from Archbishop Guy Desrochers
February 20, 2024

Lent: a time to fall back in love with God!

It's resolution time! At least, that's what most people think of doing when Lent begins. There are signs that remind us of the importance of making new resolutions and keeping them: pants have become too small; the waist is too round; the mirror seems to be distorting us a bit. It's time to eat healthy, we say... which also allows us to eat a little more, perhaps!

But for Christ, there is nothing truly "holy" about this kind of resolution. Lent is a time to renew our loving relationship with Christ and with our brothers and sisters around the world. Through the beautiful texts that will be offered to us throughout Lent, God will invite us to renew our Christian commitment by nourishing our faith in his Word and reminding us that "we do not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God. "(Mt 4:4) Attentive listening to the Word of God, lived each day in the silence of our hearts, is the primary attitude that will enable us to undertake a true spiritual turning point or change in our lives, which can so easily become anemic or lukewarm as we follow the currents of the world.

You might say, "I don't really need to change anything in my life. I have been a good Christian for a long time. I don't commit any serious sins. " But consider the great apostle Paul: he wasn't a great sinner either. On the contrary, according to Jewish law, he claimed to be a man without fault. But when Jesus challenged him one day, this personal encounter with Him completely overwhelmed him and he became a man whose heart burned with love for God and for his neighbor.

Prayer, fasting and sharing. These are the three magic words that define the time of Lent. To live a "holy" forty days that will surely lead us to participate in the glorious resurrection of Jesus at Easter, I propose to you a different kind of fasting. A fast that will give a true place to God in your heart and that will consume you with love for your neighbor:

- Fasting on food a few times a week, or reducing the quantity, will lead me to stand in solidarity with the 3 million people who die of hunger every year all over the world.
- Fasting of electronic games, television, worldly readings or activities that do not elevate the soul in any way and that will allow me to devote more time to intimate prayer, this heart to heart with God.
- Fasting from unnecessary shopping or extravagant spending.
- Fasting that pushes me to share certain goods or talents with the most needy.
- Fasting of certain leisure activities that will allow me to do some volunteer work and that will bring me in solidarity with those who suffer from chronic or terminal illnesses, or who are desperately waiting for the presence of someone who will know how to chase away their morbid loneliness.
- Fasting of a thousand and one small renunciations of my own will and offered to God to relieve or save souls, especially those who are still waiting for their deliverance from purgatory.

I wish each and every one of you a "holy" Lent. Let us take advantage of this sacred time that God gives us to fall in love with Him again; to become more supportive and compassionate towards our brothers and sisters who unfortunately stopped "bothering" us a long time ago. Imagine, for a moment, how transfigured and radiant the Earth would be if we all decided to live this Lent by making more effort to love one another sincerely, as Christ has shown and taught us by his example and words? We would already be in paradise, I am sure! As Lent begins, let us choose to embellish and transfigure our world by devoting more of our time to God and to our neighbor.

Sincerely yours in Christ our Redeemer,
