[Elizabeth said to Mary,] "Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."

LUKE 1:45

Feeling Our Way

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Most of the time we find ourselves backing our way into the will of God, or maybe even feeling our way into it. There are times when the will of God is quite clear: Should I lie or tell the truth? Should I steal or not? Most often, however, the will of God is not so clear. Too often it becomes a question of how to negotiate an aspect of life that's been handed to us, often a reality we cannot escape. It may be an unwanted divorce, or a son or daughter in a questionable relationship, or an illness that dismantles one's life plans. On the one hand, it is not as if God hands out scripts that we are expected to live by. On the other hand, God is part of all that unfolds. Somewhere in the midst of that is the will of God, which is another way of saying somehow you and I need to negotiate what we never chose, but is now served up by life. Or is it served up by God? Or by our own doing? Or all of that? That's what I mean when I say we feel our way into the will of God.

It is what Jesus sorted out in the desert when he was tempted, "I come to do your will, O God." It is Elizabeth's story of an unexpected pregnancy in her old age. It is Mary saying "Yes" to an uncharted path. Living God's will seems mostly to be a sorting process. ●

Reflect

Have you responded with a whole-hearted "Yes" to God's will for you?

Dear Padre,

Where does the Hail Mary prayer come from?

The Hail Mary owes its origin to the rosary. The traditional story of the rosary was that Mary herself appeared to St. Dominic in the twelfth century and gave him the rosary with the promise that if he spread devotion to the rosary, his religious order would flourish. In the twelfth century, religious orders recited together the 150 psalms as a way to mark the hours of the day and the days of the week. In order to pray the psalms, though, people had to know how to read. People who didn't know how to read wanted to share in the practice, so the rosary, or praying on beads, began as a parallel prayer practice. It was a way that illiterate people could remember the Lord and his Mother throughout the day.

The first rosaries consisted of a string of 150 beads, and, much as we do now, a person would pass over each bead after saying a prayer, usually the Our Father. Later, people added the Archangel Gabriel's greeting—"Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee"—and later still, Elizabeth's prayer we hear in today's Gospel—"Blessed art thou among women." Finally this prayer was added in the sixteenth century: "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death." ●

Bishop McKnight's December prayer intention for our Local Church

For hope to find a home in our hearts as we embrace the joy of Christ's birth. Amid the jubilation, may we also find time in prayer to experience the calm and peace of God's presence in our lives.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Do I move forward with hope...? We can also ask for...the grace of a healthy sense of humor: it does so much good.... The first act of charity we can do for our neighbors is to offer them a serene and smiling face. It is bringing the joy of Jesus to them, as Mary did with Elizabeth.

Parishioner Christmas Gift

Merry Christmas from your parish! Please find books in both church vestibules for each family written by Matthew Kelly.

We hope the parishioners at St. Patrick enjoy "Thirty Three Days to Eucharistic Glory" and Immaculate Conception parishioners enjoy "The Three Ordinary Voices of God"!

We want to thank Michael Auchly for purchasing the Christmas Books for the parishioners at Immaculate Conception.

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb."

Luke 1:41-42

"Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb." Today we give thanks to our Blessed Mother for her "yes" as we prepare to celebrate the birth of our Savior.

Immaculate Conception School News

Mrs. Bergmann's 3rd & 4th Grades

The class has been reading, reading, reading. Now it's time to share their books with their friends. The rubric was given at the beginning of the school year and the assignment was posted on Google Classroom September 18th. The students have had a lot of time to prepare for these book conferences.

Rubric

Read a book (100-150 pages) and complete the reading logs that have been given to them weekly. There were two logs to complete; one each semester. At the end of the semester, there will be a book talk and they will have a book conference with their teacher / classmates. They can have notes in your own handwriting. They may also find it helpful to do character sketches and a "storyboard" sketch of the book. They will need to follow the story guide.

Thanksgiving Feast

Each classroom had a great Thanksgiving feast. Families provided food and items.

Month of November

In the month of November, the students worked on "Humility" virtue and learned about St. John the Baptist, St. Pio of Pietrelcina, and St. Therese of Lisieux. The following students have been chosen as "Angel of the Week" and received a coupon to Texas Roadhouse! Congratulations!

- PreK4-/K - Claudia, Josie, Hank
- 1/2 - Axton, Easton, Zoie
- 3/4 - Paisley, Josie, Maverick
- 6/8 - Aiden, Steele, Bobby

Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others." ~Philippians 2:3-4
