THE

MESSENGER

AUGUST 2016

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6:33

Campbell's Corner

Greetings to all our Family and Friends,

"Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus," (Philippians 3:13-14). In order to win the only thing you have to do is stay in the press. Therefore spend time doing things that feed, strengthen and encourage your spirit whereby you will have the spiritual endurance needed to finish your course.

Special thanks to all who attended our Ministry Outreaches to Whitestone Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland and our local outreach to Oak Grove Baptist Church during the month of July. Furthermore, we have several Ministry Outreaches during this month. We ask that you continue to plan on attending our Ministry Outreaches and other activities planned for during the course of the year.

Let us prepare our hearts, mind, and spirit for our 2016 Revival, for if we earnestly seek God for the Spirit of a Revival He will indeed send one. Furthermore, we ask that you diligently inform your family, friends, and neighbors of our Revival Week.

The Lord has blessed us to embark upon another Homecoming and we are looking forward to this occasion with great joy, jubilation and expectation. We pray that God's Grace be with all those who will come and be with us during this joyful time.

As we go forward into the rest of this year it's very important that believers stay focus. You cannot meditate on your past and your future at the same time. So, focus your mind and attention on the desired future you want and deserve.

Continue to remember one another in your prayers and especially our sick and shut-in members.

Love you much with all My Heart,

Pastor and First Lady Campbell

~ THE MONTH OF AUGUST ~

RE-FINANCE: Ancient Wisdom for Modern Money Management Money, Money, Money

Money can be a helpful tool and a valuable resource, but it makes for a lousy boss. Ask people their opinion about money, and you'll be left with a variety of answers: they love it, hate it, spend it, save it, want it, work for it, beg for it, borrow it, steal it, invest it, and give it. Sure, we need money, but many of us are often left weary and frustrated when it comes to our finances. We often feel managed by the very thing we are trying to manage.

But what if the richest and wisest man who ever lived offered a free financial seminar? No gimmicks. No get-rich-quick schemes. Just practical life principles for managing money?

- How should you get it?
- What should you do with it?
- What about long-term investments?
- How can you bless others at the same time?

Through the writings of King Solomon, God has provided us with all of these answers and more. In this study, we will examine principles from the ancient wisdom literature of the Old Testament to provide clear direction for money management.

August 7, 2016 – Manage Money Diligently

The Passage: Proverbs 31:13-21

The Point: Act responsibly with what God has given you

August 14, 2016 – Invest Money Wisely

The Passage: Ecclesiastes 11:1-6

The Point: When it comes to your money, plan and invest wisely

August 21, 2016 – Give Money Generously

The Passage: Proverbs 11:23-29

The Point: Use what you have to invest in the lives of others

Love Gets Involved

Where to you draw the line for love?

It's easy to love people who are close to us – our family and friends. We will go out of our way to express our love to them. When our children or grandchildren want something, we'll often do all within our power to get it for them. And if they need something – there's no limit to what we will do to meet their need. Why? We love them. No inconvenience or expense is too great if they have a need. Much of the time we'll do the same for our best friends. These are our people, and we're compassionate toward those we love. We take care of our own.

But what about other people who are all around us? Everywhere we look we see people in need. Do we have any obligation to help them – to love them? And just where do we draw the line?

It's not a new question. Jesus addressed this question head on. He told a story with an interesting twist to get His point across. In doing so, He redefined what loving compassion looks like. He calls us to a higher standard than just 'taking care of our own'.

August 28, 2016 – Love Gets Involved

The Passage: Luke 10:25-37

Love for God includes a costly love for others

The Mangohick Baptist Church

Celebrating our 150th Anniversary

Sunday, October 16, 2016

CHURCH ANNIVERSARY: Celebrating 284th Year of Erection of the Building - 150th Year of Congregational Worship. We are asking each person to give $150; and those receiving donations towards your $1,500.00, by October 16th. You can pay in full or increments. Be sure to indicate on your payment the amount being paid toward the contribution.

The day will start with morning worship @ 9:00 a.m. The Rev. Dr. John W. Kinney of Ebenezer Baptist Church, Montpelier, VA; also the Dean and Professor of Theology at Virginia Union University, will be the preacher for our morning service; the MBC Mass Choir will render music and our ushers will serve.

This day of celebration will continue @ The Meadow Farm Event Park; Meadow Hall Mansion. Doors will open @ 2:00 p.m. as we invite you to the "welcome reception" to be held in the Meadow Hall gallery and covered terrace areas. You can also have your pictures taken during this time as Mr. Derrick Irby will be taking photographs for this momentous occasion. Photographs are printed at this time (4x6); and can be purchased for $10.00. We will have other segments during the ceremony where you will be able to have your photos taken.

The Anniversary Gala will begin @ 3:00 p.m. in the softly-lit, mahogany paneled Meadow Hall Ballroom. Our Mistress of Ceremonies for the evening will be Minister Angelia Lewis; of Macedonia Baptist Church, Woodford, VA. Our music for this event will be delivered by the one and only; the well-known renowned vocalist; Richmond, VA artist, Mr. Carlton Blount; accompanied by his guitarist, Carl 'Chico' Lester-El.
