A large plastic tub or garbage can with a lid can be used to store these disaster preparedness items for your ferret. Tape a copy of this list to the inside of the cover for future reference. Include a calendar indicating when certain items should be/were replaced.

In addition to the items listed above, include anything you use for your ferret on a weekly or monthly basis. A good idea is to collect all the materials, and then experiment by using only those items to care for your ferret the next two weeks. That way, you will easily find out if you need to include other items, or a larger quantity of certain things.
