M: Hosanna to the Son of David, the King of Israel.
C: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest!

M: The Lord be with you.
C: And also with you.

M: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
C: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

A PRAYER OF CONFESSION

M: Merciful Father, we come before you in this solemn season of Lent. For the past five weeks, our meditation has been on your Son's passion. And yet even in the midst of this focus, we have stumbled and failed. Every day of Lent, we have sinned in our actions, or in our speech, or in our thoughts, or in our attitudes, or — most likely — in all of these ways. Therefore, as we begin this Holy Week, we humbly come before you, and we pray...

C: Have mercy on us. In your compassion forgive us our sins.
Blot out our transgressions. Take away our guilt.
Uphold us by your Spirit so that we may live and serve you in newness of life,
To the honor and glory of your holy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

M: Father, you sent your Son to be perfect, precisely because you knew we could not be perfect. You sent Christ to obey the Law, precisely because you knew, no matter how intense our devotion, no matter how fervent our prayer, we would still break your Law. You sent your Son to show perfect love, for you knew that no matter how good our intentions, no matter how focused our efforts, our love for you and for others would be found lacking. Therefore, through faith, we boldly claim Christ — his righteousness, his beauty, his life — as our own.

C: His obedience we call our obedience.
His death we call our death to sin.
His power over temptation and Satan himself, we call our power.
His glory shall be our glory.
His resurrection shall be our resurrection.
His reign eternal shall be shared with us.

M: His mission shall be our mission — to share the Good News of Christ, that at the name of Jesus, every knee might bow.

C: And every tongue confess him, King of Glory now.

Congregational Response - Hymn 363 v. 3

“The King of Glory Comes”

Refrain

The King of glo - ry comes; the na - tion re - joic - es.
O - pen the gates be - fore him; lift up your voic - es.
3 He gave his life for us, the lamb of sal - va - tion;
He took up - on him - self the sin of the na - tions.

Repeat refrain.

PRAYER

M: Let us Pray:
We praise and bless you, ever-living God,
for the acts of love by which you redeem the world through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: This day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem and was proclaimed king by those who spread their garments and palm branches along his way. May we, this day and always, open wide the gate of our heart, so that the King of Glory may enter. Amen.

Old Testament Lesson:Zechariah 9:9-10 (NIV)

⁹ Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion!

Shout, Daughter Jerusalem!

See, your king comes to you,
righteous and victorious,
lowly and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

¹⁰ I will take away the chariots from Ephraim and the warhorses from Jerusalem,
and the battle bow will be broken.

He will proclaim peace to the nations.

His rule will extend from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Epistle Lesson:Hebrews 12:1-3 (EHV)

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us get rid of every burden and the sin that so easily ensnares us, and let us run with patient endurance the race that is laid out for us. ² Let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, who is the author of our faith and the one who brings it to its goal. In view of the joy set before him, he endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of God's throne. ³ Carefully consider him who endured such hostility against himself from sinful people, so that you do not grow weary and lose heart.

Gospel Lesson:

Luke 19:28-40 (EHV)

²⁸ After Jesus had said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹ As he came near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples ahead, ³⁰ saying, “Go to the village ahead of you. When you enter it, you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. ³¹ And if anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ you will say this: ‘The Lord needs it.’” ³² Those who were sent ahead went and found things just as he had told them. ³³ As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?” ³⁴ They said, “The Lord needs it.” ³⁵ Then they brought the colt to Jesus. They threw their robes on the colt and set Jesus on it. ³⁶ As he went along, people spread their robes on the road. ³⁷ As he was approaching the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began to praise God joyfully, with a loud voice, for all the miracles they had seen, ³⁸ saying, “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!” ³⁹ Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples!” ⁴⁰ He replied, “I tell you, if these people would be silent, the stones would cry out.”

LENTEN CONFESSION OF FAITH

This is what the Bible teaches and, therefore, what we believe.

We believe in Jesus Christ; He is the true God from all eternity — almighty, all-knowing, present in all places. He is a man from Nazareth — weak in the flesh, fearful of future sorrow, tortured by pain. He was tempted like us, yet like we will never know; But he triumphed over temptation; he refrained from his full might and glory; he submitted humbly to the Father’s will; he chose death, to give us life. We believe that our sins anger God, Each one of them: big and small, public and private, those that hurt others, those that don’t appear to hurt anyone, those we don’t even remember.

We believe that Jesus lived and died for the sins of the world. He resisted every temptation; he reached out in love, to anyone in need; he remained pure in every thought, not just to be a good person, not just to be a good example, but to be mankind's perfect Savior and Substitute, to live the Law in our place, so that the Law will not condemn us. He submitted to shame; he suffered unjust punishment; he sacrificed Himself, not to prove a point, not just to show us how to obey, but to take mankind's sentence for sin, as our perfect Savior and Substitute. He is our sure hope and salvation. This is what the Bible says; therefore, this is what we believe.

THE OFFERTORY

OFFERING HYMN 486 v. 5

"Lord of Glory, You Have Bought Us"

Please stand and sing as the ushers bring the plates forward.

Lord of glory, you have bought us
With your lifeblood as the price,
Never grudging for the lost ones
That tremendous sacrifice.
Give us faith to trust you boldly,
Hope, to stay our souls on you;
But, oh, best of all your graces,
With your love our love renew.

THE PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

M: Heavenly Father, you loved the world and gave your Son to liberate us from sin and death by his obedient death on the cross.

C: We confess that without your love we are lost.

M: Lord of the Church, we thank you for the treasure of the gospel. By your Spirit, keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith.

- C: Strengthen our determination to do what pleases you, no matter what the danger or the cost.
- M: Let us pray for those who carry a cross in the name of Christ and face ridicule and persecution for the sake of the kingdom: missionaries and chaplains, young people who stand up for what is right in the face of pressure to do what is wrong, and all who pay a high price for their faith and their values as Christians.
- C: By your Spirit, O Lord, grant them patience and endurance.
- M: Let us pray for those who carry heavy burdens in life: the sick and the chronically ill, the depressed and the lonely, those torn by conflict in personal relationships, those victimized by war and injustice, and all who face the terrors of life with a heavy heart.
- C: Grant them peace, O Lord, and in your mercy, be their guardian and friend, their comfort and hope.
- M: Let us pray for those who care for others: pastors and counselors; physicians and nurses; social workers and caring friends; all who feed the hungry, comfort the hurting, and stand beside the dying.
- C: Strengthen them in their work, O Lord, and do not let them become weary in doing good.

Special prayers and intercessions may follow.

- M: Help us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Keep us faithful even to the point of death, that we may receive the crown of life, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who also taught us to pray...
- C: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

THE SACRAMENT

M: The Lord be with you.

C: And al - so with you.

M: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them up to the Lord.

M: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

M: Praise to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In love he has blessed us with every spiritual blessing. In the past he spoke to us through the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, who is the radiance of his glory. Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ. To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and thanks and honor and glory for ever and ever:

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

M: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

M: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: A - men.

Agnus Dei

C: O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us. O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us. O Christ, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us your peace. A - men.

BE SEATED

The Bible tells us that those who take Communion together are to:

- 1. Recognize that Christ's true body and blood are present in the Sacrament (1 Cor. 11:29),*
- 2. Examine themselves (1 Cor. 11:28), and*
- 3. Be united in faith with the congregation with which they commune (1 Cor. 10:17).*

For these reasons, it is our practice that only those who are members of our congregation or a congregation of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS) join us for Holy Communion. If you are interested in learning more about becoming part of our fellowship, please speak to the pastor after the service.

Distribution

Just a reminder that Nursery help is available this Sunday for your little ones during communion. If you'd like to use this free service, please come to the back of church during distribution to drop off your child(ren). Of course, all parents are welcome to bring their child(ren) to the front with them while they commune – if they so choose.
