

Straight Paths Driving School

Lesson 1: Controls, Devices, and Instruments

The instrument _____ and vehicle _____ are slightly _____ in each kind of _____. You need to know how to _____ the _____ and understand the _____ of the _____ lights. You also need to know how to use _____ for _____, _____ and _____.

Lesson 2: Getting Ready to Drive

You can help to prevent _____ even before you _____ the automobile. These _____ include completing a _____ check of both the _____ and _____ of the car and _____ the vehicle properly. You also need to _____ the _____ and _____ before driving.

Lesson 3: Starting, Stopping, Steering, and Targeting _____ steering involves effective use of _____ and a comfortable, balanced _____ position on the _____. Using _____ helps you steer with pinpoint _____. You should _____ the _____ and _____ pedals with _____ pressure, not _____ on them, to accelerate and brake _____.

Lesson 4: Driving with a Manual Transmission

A _____ converts engine _____ into _____. The _____ connects the _____ shaft to the _____ in a _____ transmission; pressing the _____ pedal allows you to shift _____. Cars with manual transmissions are _____ expensive and require less _____, but require you to take one _____ off the steering wheel on a _____ basis and can be more _____ to inexperienced drivers.