

Katie Ramos

MISS RODEO ARIZONA

Surrounded by the largest Ponderosa Pine forest in the world, Katie Ramos, the 24-year-old daughter of David and Karin Ramos, proudly calls Flagstaff, Arizona home. With access to miles of mountains and rangeland, Katie has been able to pursue her love of outdoor adventure and everything cowboy culture.

From rodeos, to showing all-around Appaloosas and livestock through 4-H in her youth, to holding two PRCA titles and working for four years with trainers in the National Cutting Horse and National Reining Horse Association, the western lifestyle has undeniably been a cornerstone in Katie's life. She enjoys the family oriented community within rodeo and admires the variety of talent that is displayed by the four-legged and two-legged competitors.

When not working at the local campground or studying, Katie spends her time improving her breakaway roping skills, reading and going on outdoor adventures. Katie's ultimate goal is to teach agriculture. She is currently completing her Associate's degree and will attend The University of Arizona to pursue a Bachelor's degree in future of rodeo and agriculture.

