

PROPOSAL OF LAW FOR PROTECTION OF THE FAMILY

1. Introduction and objectives

The cultural, economic and social changes have influenced in the integration of the family and its tasks. Therefore, to strengthen and protect this institution needs to adapt the institutional framework.

The fundament of a just social policy must not seek the replacement of the family by the State, if not on the other hand, is this who must create educational, economic, labor, housing and social security conditions, which stimulate the responsibility and power of the families.

This initiative establishes that the government, in its relations with the family, should be obliged to respect the principle of subsidiarity and to ensure, in law and in practice, the fulfilment of the mission proper to the families that belong to the political community, which cannot be fully but within a social, economic and political order. But it also has, that the family should cooperate with the State and the intermediary organizations to the establishment of order in society, and carry out the vital task of guiding and educating socially and politically to its members.

The objective of this initiative is to establish general criteria for the implementation of public policies for the protection of the organization and development of the family, in the context of the exercise of their social rights, under a perspective of equality between women and men and unqualified respect for the principle of the best interest of the child.
