

WASHINGTON CEC, CCBD & CASE SPRING CONFERENCE 2018

Rising Behaviors in Schools: The Call for Renewed Approaches

Keynote: Dr. Richard Van Acker University of Illinois, Chicago

There has been a significant rise in the number of students in the classrooms of our public and private schools who display emotional, behavioral and mental health disorders that often manifest in challenging behavior. Dr. Van Acker will explore this phenomenon and how the rise in the number of students with mental health concerns, trauma backgrounds, and adverse childhood experiences coupled with the increasing academic demands being placed upon younger and younger students has resulted in the 'perfect storm' and a rise student behavior problems.
