

Glenn Roth

Fingerstyle Guitarist

BIO

Guitarist Glenn Roth amazes audiences with his fluid fingerstyle originals, jaw-dropping chops, and engaging shows. Glenn's "delicate, accomplished solo guitar work" has led to tours nationally and internationally, including annual tours throughout the mid- and southwest and a stint throughout Europe with the Master Guitar Tour. Glenn's classic, melodic approach to fingerstyle guitar, virtuosic skills, and compelling compositions, have won him fans worldwide. "Fans of animated fingerstyle acoustic guitar will be impressed by Roth's ability to hold sway with sheer virtuosity."

A literal "underground sensation," Glenn performs regularly as a licensed musician in the renowned Music Under New York program, performing his compelling solo guitar originals and ingenious arrangements for thousands of commuters throughout Manhattan. His YouTube series, Busker TV, chronicles his adventures.

When not touring or bringing his music to the masses in Grand Central and throughout the MTA, Glenn performs frequently at clubs, coffeehouses, and house concerts throughout his home state of Connecticut and across the northeast.

Dynamic Performances

Glenn is an engaging and energetic performer, combining dynamic musicianship with tales of his adventures underground and, on occasion, spontaneous singalongs on his mindblowing solo guitar arrangements of classics like Bohemian Rhapsody. Glenn has performed with world-renowned musicians including Stephen Bennett, Antoine Dufour, Tuck & Patti, Bucky Pizzarelli, and Carl Verhagen.
