Sunday Meditation

It's a sad fact of our church experience that multitudes more prayers are prayed than are ever answered. This ought not to be. The main reason for this, I think, must be our unbelief, our double-mindedness: "But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. For let not that man think he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways." (James 1: 6-8). Our doubt is often a result of a troubled conscience caused by incomplete obedience. "Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence toward God. And whatever we ask we receive from Him because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight:" (1 John 3:21-22). A conscience convicted of imperfect obedience weakens our faith. All for Jesus, Richard
