Civil Action

File No. 2013CV231662

ORDER DENYING REQUEST TO FILE

The above-styled matter comes before this Court on Petitioner's Request to File numerous additional motions and subpoenas. After examining the substance of the motions and her request, this Court finds that they do nothing more than rehash issues and allegations that have been previously adjudicated by this Court. For instance, this Court dismissed her case on July 3, 2013. She now is requesting to file a Motion for an Expedited Trial and a Motion for Summary Judgment. In reading her Motion for Contempt and Petition for Change of Custody, the factual substance of the documents is identical to that which she previously filed in this case and Case No. 2011CV205975.

In addition, the protocol Petitioner must follow in order to have her request granted is that she must attach an affidavit attesting that the documents she seeks to file are not frivolous or vexatious and she must explain how the documents relate to the underlying merit of her case. She contends that she submitted them as exhibits A and B, but exhibit A is her Petition for Change of Custody and exhibit B is her Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit.

Accordingly, her request is HEREBY DENIED.

So ORDERED this 18 day of July, 2013.
