

The following poem was written by our member John D. SHAW.

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

For a moment you brought America to her knees
 But, she wasn't there to stay
 She only seized that moment
 As a time to pause and pray.

You destroyed her towers
 In her heart you knocked a hole
 But, you only woke her spirit
 And you damaged not her soul.

Hundreds of her children vanished
 The numbers not yet tallied
 Those can never be replaced
 But, thousands quickly rallied.

Each attempt to weaken her
 Only serves to make her strong
 Those despicable deeds can't bring her down
 If you think that, then you're wrong.

Your cowardly mission was accomplished
 Your actions, tho well planned
 Only brought her closer together
 United now she stands.

She's a land of many differences
 Religions, politics, cultures and races
 But, you reminded us we are first of all Americans
 And we'll shove that in your faces.
