CHAIR'S CORNER

by Tom Watson

The months of August and September are back to school for students. Students can be elementary, middle school, high school and college students. My wife and I are about to move our daughter back into her dorm to begin her second year at Indiana University. She will get to start a fresh new year with exciting and challenging courses. With that being said, they are not the only ones starting a new year going to school. We, as ASQ members, will be going back to school in September after a summer break. We will be going back to the school of quality. Our section has some exciting events planned for the first few months. In September, Christopher Lyons of Kimball Electronics will be speaking on The True Root Cause...Four Steps Down the Path to Success. October's meeting will be a tour of All State Towers in Henderson, KY. In November, I will be showing you, and having you participate, in Design of Experiments with the catapult. I am looking forward to seeing everyone and a great year for our Section!
