ARTICLE I*ELECTIVE OFFICERS.

2-101. OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED. There shall be elected in the City of Lisbon the Following officers: a Mayor, six (6) aldermen elected at large, and a Municipal Judge.

2-102. TERM OF ELECTIVE OFFICERS. The elective officers of the City of Lisbon, unless otherwise specified shall hold their respective offices for four years and until their successors are elected and qualified.

2-103. QUALIFICATIONS OF ELECTIVE AND APPOINTIVE OFFICERS. No person shall be eligible to hold an elective municipal office unless he is a qualified elector of the City of Lisbon and unless he has been a resident thereof for at least nine months preceding the election, and is able to read and write the English Language. No person shall be eligible to hold an appointive office unless he is a citizen of the United States. No person in default to the City of Lisbon shall be eligible to any office.

2-104. MAYOR: TERM OF OFFICE. The chief executive officer of the City is the Mayor, who shall hold his office for four (4) years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

2-105. SAME: COMPENSATION OF. The Mayor shall receive such compensation as the City Council may, by ordinance, direct; but his compensation shall not be changed during his term of office.

2-106. SAME: DUTIES OF. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the City Council, but shall not vote except in the case of a tie, when he shall give the deciding vote. He shall perform all such duties as are or may be described by law or by the City Ordinances, and shall take care that the laws and ordinances are faithfully executed. The Mayor, at any time, may examine and inspect books, records, and papers of any agent, employee, or officer of the City. The Mayor shall sign or veto each ordinance or resolution passed by the Council.

2-107. ALDERMEN: TERM OF OFFICE. Aldermen shall hold their office for four (4) years and until their successors are elected and qualified, provided, however, that the Aldermen elected shall alternate in their respective terms of office by electing only one-half (1/2) the number of Aldermen in any one election except that whenever more than three (3) Aldermen are to be elected in any one election, then, of the Aldermen elected to the vacancies created, the alderman or aldermen receiving the lower number of votes in said election shall serve only two (2) years. (Ord 94-2).

2-108. SAME: DUTIES OF. Each Alderman shall perform the duties provided by law and the ordinances of the City. He shall attend all regular and special meetings of the City Council, and of his particular committee, and of the Board of Equalization, unless absent from the City or excused by the Mayor.

2-109. MUNICIPAL JUDGE, JURISDICTION OF. The Municipal Judge shall have exclusive jurisdiction of, and it shall be his duty to hear, try, and determine offenses against the ordinances of the City.

The Municipal Judge shall perform all the duties prescribed by law and the ordinances of the City and shall make a full report, in writing under oath, of his proceedings in all actions or matters in which the City of Lisbon is a party or interested to the City Council monthly and such report shall contain the names of the parties to the action or proceeding, the judgment entered, the amount of such judgment and all costs, the amount of fine and costs paid, if any, and the disposition thereof together with an itemized statement of the fees of said Municipal Judge and, as the case may be, of all officers and witnesses with the names of each, which report shall be accompanied by the duplicate receipt of the City Auditor for the amount of fine, criminal fees, and money so collected in behalf of the City.

He shall at no time retain or withhold from the moneys coming to his hands from fines any portion thereof, under color or claim of any portion thereof being due to him, for his fees or costs, but at the time of making his report and returning the moneys collected for such fines, he shall present for the action of the Council, a bill for such fees and costs and for any breach thereof he shall be subject to a like fine as hereinafter provided for.

He shall keep his office open at all reasonable hours, excepting Sunday and legal holidays for the transaction of business of his office.

If any Municipal Judge shall neglect or refuse to pay over to the City Auditor on or before the last day of the succeeding month the money collected by him during any previous month, or shall refuse to allow the Mayor, the City Council or any of its committees to examine his records in regard to such matters he shall be deemed guilty of willful neglect in office and may be removed therefrom according to law.

In all cases not herein otherwise provided for the process and proceedings before such Municipal Judge shall be governed by the Laws of the State regulating the process and proceeding in such courts.

2-110. MUNICIPAL JUDGE, COMPENSATION OF. As full compensation for his services the Municipal Judge shall be paid the fees allowed justices of the peace for similar services, under the laws of the State. Such fees, and all fees and costs incurred in their courts for which the City may be liable, shall be audited and paid in the same manner as other claims against the City.

2-111. OATH OF OFFICERS. All officers of the City, whether elected or appointed, shall before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed in section 211 of the Constitution. Such oath shall be filed in the office of the City Auditor except in the case of the auditor who shall file their oath of office with the County Auditor of Ransom County.

2-112. RETIRING OFFICERS TO TURN OVER BOOKS. Any person having been an officer of the City shall within five (5) days after notification and request, deliver to his successor in office all property, books and effects of every description in his possession, belonging to the City or appertaining to his office; and upon his refusal to do so shall be liable for all damages caused thereby, and to such penalty as is hereinafter prescribed.

ARTICLE II

APPOINTIVE OFFICERS

2-201. OFFICERS APPOINTED, WHEN, HOW. At the first regular meeting of the City Council, after the election for Mayor, or within a reasonable time thereafter, the Mayor shall appoint a City Auditor, a City Attorney, a City Street Commissioner, a City Water and Sewerage Superintendent, a Chief of Police, and as soon thereafter as possible appoint such other officers or boards as the City Council may deem necessary, provided, the Mayor may remove any officer appointed by him whenever he shall be of the opinion that the interests of the City demand such removal but, at the next regular meeting the Mayor shall submit in writing the reasons for removal of said officer.

2-202. VACANCY CAUSED THROUGH REMOVAL BY MAYOR, HOW FILLED. A successor, ad interim, may be appointed by the Mayor to fill a vacancy caused by the removal of any officer by the Mayor, who shall qualify and be subject to the same liabilities and vested with the same rights as a duly appointed and confirmed officer until the next regular meeting of the City Council. The Council shall, at such meeting, proceed to ballot on the appointment as is hereinbefore provided for original appointment. In case of a vacancy for any other cause the same shall be filled in like manner as an original appointment.

2-203. TERM OF APPOINTED OFFICERS. All appointed officers shall, unless sooner removed according to law, hold their respective offices for two (2) years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified; the term of office shall commence in the first day of May succeeding their appointment, except for such offices as are in these ordinances specifically provided otherwise.

2-204. POSTPONEMENT OF APPOINTMENTS. The Council may upon the concurrence of two-thirds of the Aldermen present postpone action on such appointments or any of them to a special session of the Council to be held not later than one week from the date of such adjournment.

2-205. CITY ASSESSOR: APPOINTMENT OF. The Mayor shall at the first meeting of the Council in September of each odd numbered year appoint a City Assessor as described by the law of the State; said appointment shall be confirmed and approved by the majority ballot of the Aldermen elected, and in the case of a failure of the Council to confirm and approve any such appointment, the Mayor shall immediately and at such meeting, make another appointment to be acted on in like manner by the Council and shall so proceed until the office is filled. The Mayor can a second time submit the name of any appointee, who has once failed of confirmation and approval by stating in writing with such appointment his reasons therefore; but an appointee twice rejected by the Council cannot a third time be appointed by the Mayor during the same term of his office as Mayor.

2-206. SAME: DUTIES OF. The City Assessor shall perform all duties necessary for the assessing of property within the City Limits for the purpose of levying City, County, School and State Taxes.

2-207. CHIEF OF POLICE, DUTIES OF. The Chief of Police shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the City Council and Chapter 3 Article 2 for the preservation of the peace. All police officers of the City shall, within the City Limits and for a distance of one and one-half (1 1/2) miles in all directions within the State next outside the City Limits, perform the duties and exercise the power of Peace Officers as defined and prescribed by the Laws of the State; and shall also have the power, and it shall be their duty, to serve and execute any warrants, writs process, order or notice issued to them by the Municipal Judge within said City in any civil or criminal action or proceeding for or on account of a violation of any City ordinances, or in any action or proceeding in which the City is a party or beneficially considered; and in addition thereto shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the ordinances of the City.

2-208. AUDITOR, DUTIES OF. It shall be the duty of the City Auditor in connection with his other duties:

1. To present and keep a correct journal of the proceedings of each meeting of the City Council.
2. To make a correct record of the same, engross all ordinances and record the same in a book for ordinances.

The salaries of the Auditor, Assessor, Chief of Police, Street Commissioner and Superintendent of Waterworks and Sewerage shall be fixed by the Mayor at the time of appointment, subject to the approval of the City Council. Said salaries may be increased from time to time by the Mayor, subject to the approval of the City Council.

The Municipal Judge shall receive only such sums as are allowed by state law. (Ord 92-8) (Ord 94-4)

2-302. SALARIES, PAID HOW. All salaries herein provided for shall be paid in monthly installments at the expiration of each month where such officers hold office for one month or more. In temporary appointments where the compensation is fixed by the Mayor with the approval of the Council the compensation shall be paid upon the presentation and auditing of the bills of said special appointees. The compensation of the City Assessor shall be paid each year upon completion of the assessment.

ARTICLE IV*CITY COUNCIL

2-401. REGULAR MEETINGS. The regular meetings of the City Council shall be held on the first Monday evening of each month, at 7:30 o'clock P.M., at such place as may be designated by order or resolution of the City Council, and may adjourn to any other time to attend to unfinished business, or to secure a quorum.

2-402. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings may be called by the Mayor or by any three or more Aldermen. Notice of such special meeting shall be served upon the Mayor and Aldermen not calling the meeting, at least six hours before the time of meeting either by a copy delivered to them personally or by copy left at their usual place of abode or business or with some member of the family at least twelve years of age, which notice shall specify the time, place, and object of such meeting, and shall be signed by the Mayor or Aldermen calling such meeting; and it shall be the duty of the Chief of Police or any policeman to serve the same.

2-403. CALL TO ORDER. The Mayor shall, at the hour of meeting, call the Council to order; he shall then preserve order and decorum and decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal of the Council.

2-404. ATTENDANCE OF ALDERMEN. Any Aldermen neglecting to attend any regular, special or adjourned meeting of the City Council after having received due notice of such meeting as provided in Section 2-402 and remaining in attendance until the adjournment of such meeting, unless excused for such non- attendance by the City Council, shall be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars for the first offense and not less than ten dollars for the second, or any subsequent offense, and for a third or subsequent offense may be expelled from office with the concurrence of two thirds of the Aldermen elect.

2-405. CALLING ROLL OF MEMBERS. As soon as the Council shall be called to order the Auditor shall call the names of the members in alphabetical order, noting who are present and who are absent, and record the same in the proceedings of the Council; and if it appear that there is not a quorum present the fact shall be entered in the journal and the Council shall stand adjourned.

2-406. VOTING AT MEETINGS. No member of the City Council shall be excused from voting, except by a majority of the Council present at such session.

2-407. ADJOURNMENT OF MEETINGS. The Council may at a regular meeting adjourn to such time as may be agreed upon, and at such adjourned meeting may do any business that might be done at a regular meeting.

2-408. MOTION TO ADJOURN. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, but a motion to adjourn shall not be received when the Council is voting on another question.

2-409. RULES OF ORDER OF BUSINESS. At each regular meeting of the Council the order of business shall be as follows:

1. Reading and correcting the journal of the last preceding meeting.
2. Receiving petitions, memorials, remonstrances, and other communications.
3. Reports of committees may be made and considered, first from standing committees and next from special committees.
4. Unfinished business.
5. Amending, rescinding or adopting by- laws.
6. Accounts may be introduced and acted upon.
7. Miscellaneous business.

2-410. RULES OF PROCEDURE: COUNCIL. The general rules of Council Procedure shall be as follows:

1. Order Preserved. The presiding officer shall preserve order and decorum, prevent personalities or the impugning of members' motives, confine members in debate to the question under discussion and shall decide all points of order subject to an appeal to the Council.
2. Right of Appeal. Any member may appeal to the Council from a ruling of the presiding officer. If the appeal is seconded the member making the appeal may briefly state his reason for the same, and the presiding officer may briefly explain his ruling; but there shall be no debate on the appeal and no other member shall participate in the discussion. The presiding officer shall then put the question, "Shall the decision of the chair be sustained?" If a majority of the members present vote aye, then the ruling of the chair is sustained; otherwise it is overruled.
3. Right of Floor. When any member is about to address the council he need not rise from his seat, but shall respectfully address the presiding officer by title, and when recognized by the chair shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoid personalities and refrain from impugning the motives of any other member's argument or vote.
4. Stating of Motion; Resolutions Written. When a motion is made it shall be stated by the presiding officer or read by the Auditor prior to debate. All resolutions shall be reduced to writing, and any resolution may be withdrawn by consent of the City Council before discussion or amendment.
5. Debate Limitation. No member shall speak more than twice at the same meeting on any question except by leave of the City Council. No speaker shall address the council for a period longer than five (5) minutes without permission. It shall be the duty of the presiding officer to call the speaker to order upon the expiration of such time limit. This rule may be suspended at any time by a majority vote of the council.
6. Member Call to Order. When a member is called to order, he shall not proceed until the question of order is decided.
7. Division of Question. If the question contains two or more divisible propositions the presiding officer may, and upon request of a member shall, divide the same, but a motion to strike out a provision and insert a substitute is not divisible.
8. Voting Procedure: Demand for Roll Call. All questions except passage of ordinances shall be put in this form:
"Those who are in favor of the motion (state the question) say Aye', those opposed say 'No'." In doubtful cases, or before the question is decided, any member may call for ayes and nays by roll call, and when the ayes and nays are so called for and ordered, the fact shall be entered on the journal with the names of those persons voting and the nature of their vote. The ayes and nays shall in all cases be ordered upon passage of all ordinances, resolutions, expenditure of funds or sale of property, and when called for by one member.

9. Reconsideration. After the decision on any question, any member who voted with the majority may move a reconsideration of any action at the same or the next succeeding meeting; provided, however, that a resolution authorizing or relating to any contract may be reconsidered at any time before the final execution thereof. A motion to reconsider shall require the same number of votes as is required to adopt an ordinance or resolution. After a motion for reconsideration has once been acted on, no other motion for a reconsideration thereof shall be made without unanimous consent.
10. Precedence Motion to Adjourn. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order except when a vote is being taken.
11. Precedence of Motions. When a question is before the council no motion shall be entered except the following:
  - a. To adjourn.
  - b. To fix the hour for adjournment.
  - c. For the previous question.
  - d. To lay on the table.
  - e. To postpone to a certain day.
  - f. To postpone indefinitely.
  - g. To refer to a committee.
  - h. To amend.

These motions shall have precedence in the order indicated. Any such motion, except a motion to amend, shall be put to a vote without debate.

12. Interrupting Speaker. When any member is speaking, no member shall entertain any private discussion or in any way interrupt the speaker except as to a question of order.
13. Member Moving Resolution or Motion. In all cases where a resolution or motion shall be entered on the minutes, the name of the member moving the same shall be entered in minutes.
14. Remarks of the Councilmen -- When entered in Minutes. A councilman may request, through the presiding officer, the privilege of having an abstract of his statement on any subject under consideration by the Council entered in the minutes. If the Council consents thereto, such statement shall be entered in the minutes.
15. Synopsis of Debate -- When Entered in Minutes. The Auditor may be directed by the presiding officer, with consent of the council, to enter in the minutes a synopsis of the discussion on any question coming regularly before the Council.
16. Ordinances and Resolutions. All ordinances and resolutions shall be introduced in the Council only in written form. No ordinance shall be placed on a first reading until the same has been referred to the Ordinance Committee. The requirement of referral to the Ordinance Committee may be suspended where an ordinance pertaining to the creation of any special assessment district and an ordinance levying a tax in any special assessment district duly created is to be introduced.

(con 't)

17. Amendments. It shall be in order to amend an ordinance at any time when not in the hands of a committee. If an ordinance after its second reading is referred to a committee to be amended, it shall be laid over for further consideration until the next Council meeting. A motion to amend an amendment shall always be in order but shall be limited to a single amendment of an amendment.
18. Excusal from Attendance. No member shall be excused from attendance at a Council meeting, except upon roll call, and a vote of the majority of members present.
19. Excusal During Meeting. Any member desiring to be excused while the Council is in session shall obtain permission from the presiding officer.
20. Anonymous Communications. Unsigned communications shall not be introduced in Council meetings.
21. Auditor and Employees. The Auditor and other officers and employees of Council shall be under the control and direction of the Chair during the sessions of Council.
22. Petitioners to Pay Costs. Whenever application is made for the grant of a franchise right, change of street name, amendment of zoning ordinance, street vacation, or for any other grant, right, franchise or privilege, resulting in special benefit to the applicant, the Auditor shall require an amount estimated to be sufficient to pay the costs of any advertising, recording, printing, mimeographing or other special services arising by reason of such application. Any unused balance shall be refunded to the petitioners on voucher of the Auditor.
23. Election of Officers. A majority of all members elected to the Council shall be required to elect a President and a Vice President.
24. Claims and Accounts: Allowance of. All demands, claims or accounts against the City of Lisbon shall be handled as set forth in Article V of Chapter 2, Revised Ordinances.
25. Robert's Rules of Order. Any question of procedure not covered herein shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order
26. Standing Rules: How Changed. No standing rules of order of the Council shall be repealed, rescinded, changed, or suspended except by a vote of the two-thirds majority of the members of the Council; nor shall any new rule be added thereto except by like vote.
27. Liability of City. No city officer shall make any account or incur any liability on account of the city without first presenting the same to the Council and obtaining authority therefore.

2-411. PRESIDENT AND VICE- PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL, SELECTION, DUTIES OF. The City Council shall at the first regular meeting after the annual election in each year elect from its own members a President and Vice- President, who shall hold office for the municipal year.
