2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

One of the better stories in college football the last decade has been the job head coach Bill Clark has done here. After notching a 6-6 record in 2014 (their best in a decade), UAB controversially decided to shut down their football program. After much deserved outrage, the program was re-instated and Clark surprisingly stayed on even though the Blazers didn't field a team in 2015 and 2016. Since returning in 2017, UAB has shockingly notched three straight bowl appearances, two division championships and a CUSA championship.

This year's team could be Clark's best yet with 18 returning starters. QB Tyler This year's team could be Clark's best yet with 18 returning starters. QB Tyler Johnston is back after missing five games due to injury. He will have to be more consistent after throwing 15 interceptions last year. The Blazers top 3 rushers are all back led by Spencer Brown who has 3,122 career yards but was banged up last season. UAB has two legit deep threats at WR in Austin Watkins who averaged 19.2 yards per catch and Myron Mitchell who averaged 16.3. The defense will again be a strength after ranking No. 8 in total D last year. The Blazers return their top 5 tacklers led by LB's Kristopher Moll (104 tackles, 16 TFL's) and Jordan Smith (10 sacks, 7.5 more TFL's). Maybe the biggest question mark on the team is how they replace 3-year starting kicker Nick Vogel.

We have UAB's schedule power-rated as the weakest in the entire country UAB could be a favorite in as many as 11 games this season with the only ex-ception being the road game at Miami in Week 3. If UAB were to pull off that upset, we might be talking about a major bowl bid this year for the Blazers. At the very least, they are the favorites in CUSA West.

Western Kentucky had two historically great seasons for their program in 2015 and 2016 winning 23 games and back-to-back CUSA Championships. Head and 2016 winning 23 games and back-to-back CUSA Championships. Head coach Jeff Brohm went to Purdue and the program fell off a cliff under head coach Mike Sanford with back-to-back losing seasons. WKU brought back Ty-son Helton last year who was the O.C. here in 2014-15. After an upset loss to FCS Central Arkansas in the opener, Helton pulled off one of the better coaching jobs in the country getting WKU to 9 wins, despite the fact they were only favored in four games during the regular season!

This year's team is experienced with 16 returning starters but there are a couple of major question marks. First, WKU loses both QB's Ty Storey and Steven Duncan (transfered in April) who combined for 3,357 passing yards. They also lose 1st-team All-CUSA WR Lucky Jackson who had 1,133 yards. WKU might rely more on the ground game with RB Gaej Walker (1,208 rushing yards) back along with four starters on the OL (114 career starts). With no spring practice, the QB spot looks like it will come down to Davis Shanley and Kevaris Thomas. On defense, WKU was stout last year ranking in the Top 25 in PPG and YPG allowed. This year's D could be even better with 9 returning starters led by 1st-team All-CUSA DE DeAngelo Malone who had 99 tackles and 21 total TFL's. Outside of a couple of tough non-conference road games against Indian and Per Louisville, the schedule is manageable. Currently, we project WKU to be favored Per in eight games. In conference play they do have key games vs UAB and FAU (last year's division champs) both on the road.

In hindsight, Lane Kiffin was probably one of the best hires any Group of 5 program has made in the last decade. On the field, FAU won a couple of CUSA championships including last year in dominant fashion over UAB. Off the field, his hire raised out-of-state applications to FAU nearly 40 percent! Now with Kiffin off to Ole Miss, FAU made another big splash hire brining in Willie Taggart. While Taggart's tenure at Florida St was a colossal failure, it is hard to ignore the success he had at WKU and USF prior. Taggart has a ton of Florida connections as does new DC Jim Leavitt who was also a USF head coach. However, tions as does new DC Jim Leavitt who was also a USF head coach. However, we expect this year's FAU team to take a step back like most 1st-year head coaches this season. It starts with the lack of experience as FAU returns only 9 starters. Six are back on offense led by QB Chris Robison who threw for 3,701 yards with a 28-to-6 TD-to-INT ratio. Leading rusher Macolm Davidson (7.0 ypcl) also returns but FAU loses their top 3 receivers including TE Harrison Bryant who won the Mackey Award as the nation's top TE (also drafted in 4th round). The offensive line loses a pair of All-CUSA performers. The defense also loses its top three tacklers including a pair of All-CUSA LB's in Rashad Smith and Akileis Leroy (currently suspended) who combined for 210 tackles, 27 TFL's. They also lose CB Meiko Dotson who led the nation with 9 INT's. The schedule isn't overly difficult as outside of the opener vs Minnesota, no game is un-winnable. We currently project FAU to be clear favorites in eight ing, FAU is still a CUSA contender.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Marshall has been very consistent under head coach Doc Holliday winning at least eight games in six of the last seven seasons. Prior to last year's bowl loss to UCF, the Herd were also a perfect 6-0 in bowl games under Holliday who enters his 11th season here. With that being said, Marshall's 17-9 straight up record the last two seasons has felt a little underwhelming especially when you consider Marshall is just 9-17 ATS in those two years.

consider Marshall is just 9-17 ATS in those two years. This year's team should be just as good as recent editions. Nine starters are back on offense led by QB Isaiah Green who had an up and down 2019 sea-son with only a 15-to-11 TD-to-INT ratio. He will be surrounded by plenty of weapons as 1st-team All-CUSA RB Brenden Knox returns after rushing for 1,387 yards and 11 TD's last season. Marshall also returns three of their top four receivers led by big play threat Willie Johnson who averaged 26.8 yards per catch. Three starters are also back on the offensive line led by guard Cain Madden. The defense is much less experienced this season with only four returning starters. Still, 1st-team All-CUSA LB Tavante Beckett returns after leading the team with 121 tackles and 7 TFL's. DE Darius Hodge also returns after leading the Herd with 7 sacks. Marshall does lose 1st-team CUSA kicker Justin Rohrwasser who was drafted by New England.

The schedule is manageable as currently there is no game where we project the Herd to be more than a TD underdog. This should be another bowl season for Holliday and company. Whether it becomes more than that, depends on QB Green's level of improvement or lack thereof.

Southern Miss is one of the most consistent Group of 5 programs in the entit country. Outside of nightmare 2012-14 stretch, the Golden Eagles have ha 23 winning seasons since 1994 (18 straight prior to 2012, and 5 straight sinc 2014). This stretch of being consistently above average has continued und head coach Jay Hopson with four straight winning seasons. However, there ha been a sense that they've fallen a little short of expectation under him (see AT stat box below). That includes losing the last three games of 2019.

This year's team welcomes back 14 starters including QB Jack Abraham wh This year's team welcomes back 14 starters including QB Jack Abraham wh threw for 3,496 yards and completed 68% of his passes. The problem is he als threw 15 interceptions and will need to be more consistent. Leading rushe Kevin Perkins is back after splitting carries with the departed De'Michael Har ris. Ist-team All-CUSA WR Quez Watkins departs after notching 1,178 receiv ing yards (18.4 ypc and a 6th round draft pick). The cupboard isn't bare as Tir Jones (902 yards) returns along with the speedy Jaylon Adams who excels i the return game. Southern Miss does bring back four starters on the offensiv line. The defense returns four of their top five tacklers led by Rover Ky'e Hemby (93 tackles). Also keep an eye on DE Jacques Turner who had 13 TFL's

Outside of a road trip to Auburn, there isn't a single game on the schedule that isn't winnable. Currently, we have Southern Miss favored in eight games. Th Golden Eagles do need to do a better job of taking care of business under Hor son as they've lost eight games outright laying 5.5 points or more. Finally, th COVID-19 shutdown could impact them as they have two new coordinators.

Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz is doing a great job in Ruston. The Bull-dogs have six straight winning seasons and are the only program in the country to have six straight bowl wins. Last year's team won 10 games for the first time ever at the FBS level. It could have been more if not for a late season 2-game suspension for QB J'Mar Smith in which the Bulldogs lost both games he missed. With that being said, it looks like Louisiana Tech will take a step back in 2020. With COVID-19 shutting down spring practice, this certainly isn't the season With COVID-19 shutting down spring practice, this certainly isn't the season to have one of the least experienced teams (only 8 returning starters) and also break in two new coordinators. QB Smith departs (2,977 yards, 18-5 ratio) and it looks like Aaron Allen will get the first crack at replacing him. Allen was okay in the two games he started last season (57%, 3-1 ratio). The good news is that leading rusher Justin Henderson (1,062 yards) returns along with three of their top four receivers led by big-play threat Griffin Hebert (17.9 yards per catch and 6 TD's). The defense was hit hard with only two returning starters. They lose a pair of 4th-round NFL draft picks in CB Amik Robertson and S L'Jarius Sneed who combined for 8 interceptions. Keep an eye on DE Milton Williams who led the team with 5.5 sacks last season.

The schedule isn't overly difficult. Outside of a road trip to Baylor, no game is unwinnable for them. Currently, we project the Bulldogs to be favored in seven games this season, but there are many games on the schedule that we project to be decided by less than a TD. This looks like another bowl season, but we don't think they come near last year's 10-win total.

Charlotte has only been playing football since 2013 but is located in a nice recruiting hot-bed. Last year the 49ers got to their first bowl game in school history under first-year head coach Will Healy (only 35 years old and a rising star in the industry). The future looks bright for both Healy and the 49ers as he just signed their best recruiting class in school history.

The offense returns seven starters including QB Chris Reynolds who threw for 2,564 yards and 22 TD's while also adding 791 rushing yards and six more TD's. The 49ers will have to replace leading rusher Benny LeMay who ran for 1,082 yards last year. They do bring in Northern Illinois transfer RB Tre Harbison who had back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons to fill the gap. The 49ers will also have to replace LT Cameron Clark who was a 4th-round draft pick. Keep an eye on incoming OT recruit Ty'kieast Crawford who is the first 4-star recruit in school Incoming OT recruit Ty kleast Crawford who is the first 4-star recruit in school history. Also WR Victor Tucker who led the team 909 receiving yards (17.5 ypc) and seven TD's was a standout on film. The defense loses DE Alex Highsmith (14 sacks and 7.5 more TFL's) who was selected in the 3rd round of the NFL Draft. The 49ers also lose their top 2 tacklers but return DE Tyriq Harris and S Ben DeLuca who both dealt with injuries last season. Keep an eye out on DE Markees Watts who had 9.5 sacks last year.

The schedule isn't overwhelming but Charlotte might be favored in only five games this year and two of those (Georgia St and FIU) might be in the very short favorite role. Keep in mind, the 49ers only been favored in five games total in the last two seasons, yet managed 12 wins. 0000 Ochedale

Middle Tennessee has been a model of consistency for a Group of 5 program. Head coach Rick Stockstill enters his 15th season in Murfreesboro with an overall record of 91-86 including 68-41 in conference play. However, last season the Blue Raiders had to replace their all-time leading passer in school his-tory (Rick's son Brent Stockstill), they played a tough non-conference schedule and suffered their first losing season since 2011.

Asher O'Hara won the QB job in fall camp and went on to have a successful season throwing for 2,616 yards and 20 TD's. O'Hara was only the second QB in school history (Dwight Dasher in 2009) to top 1,000 rushing yards. The Blue Raiders need to find a RB though to take some pressure off of O'Hara. Keep an eye on West Virginia transfer Martell Pettaway. Three of MT's top four receivers return and the offensive line could be a strength thanks to the return of four trates. On defined Midd Tamparea ranked bet in CUSA in total defined. starters. On defense, Middle Tennessee ranked last in CUSA in total defense and they only return four starters this season. Safety Reed Blankenship is one of their better players. Last year he notched 58 tackles and two interceptions despite missing the last five games due to injury. Also keep an eye on LB DQ Thomas who is the leading returning tackler (74) and also notched 12 TFL's.

The schedule is not as tough as last season. Middle Tennessee has one of the bigger home games in school history when they host Virginia Tech on Septem-ber 19th. Currently, we project MT to be clear favorites in two games, clear underdogs in three and it will come down to those remaining seven games on whether they can get back to a bowl game.

FIU started playing football in 2002 and current head coach Butch Davis in ited a program that was just 17-43 SU in the five seasons prior to his arr Davis, who previously coached at Miami knew the area well and now has FIU to three straight bowl games. Last year FIU notched their biggest w school history with a 30-24 upset of Miami as 3-TD underdogs.

This season, Davis might have to pull off his best coaching yet as the Pant This season, Davis might have to put off his best coaching yet as the Pant are one of the least experienced teams in the country with only 10 starter turning. On offense, QB James Morgan departs after getting drafted in the round by the N.Y. Jets. Also gone are the Panthers top two rushers Ant Jones and Napoleon Maxwell who combined for 1,572 rush yards and 18 T QB Kaylan Wiggins and Arkansas transfer RB Maleek Williams are the li replacements. Wide receiver could be a position of strength as the Pant return their leading receiver Shemar Thornton and bring in Georgia transfer Hollowen. The defense is in better shape thanks to the return of twin brot Rishard and Richard Dames in the secondary as they combined for 115 tac 10 TFL's and four INT's. Also keep an eye out on Boise St transfer LB T Maeya who recorded 166 tackles, 12 TFL's and five sacks in 33 career ga The special teams lost kicker Jose Borregales to transfer.

Despite the inexperience, the schedule isn't overly difficult. Our current protions have the Panthers clear favorites in four games, clear underdogs in games and it will depend on those four toss-up games on whether or not E can make it four straight bowl appearances. . . .

Even though the Owls are just 5-20 under head coach Mike Bloomgren, they enter the 2020 season with some optimism. They won their final three games of 2019 and from what we can see, Bloomgren is building this program the right way. They've been remarkably consistent (see ATS stat below). Also note the Owls were No. 2 in the country in fewest penalties per game last year which is another data point that shows this is a well-coached team.

The offense does have some question marks in 2020. Wiley Green got several starts a year ago at QB, but Tom Stewart was more productive and he departs along with leading rusher Aston Walter (771 yards and 8 TD's). QB Mike Collins is a TCU transfer and is the favorite to start. The Owls do have an exciting option at WR in the 6-foot-5 Brad Rozner who averaged 14.0 yards per catch and was 2nd-team All-CUSA. Austin Trammell also caught 60 passes last year on the default of the default of the document of the offense at the favorite to start. and was 2nd-team An-CUSA. Austin frammer also caught of passes last year and he returns. The defense has a ton of experience coming back in 2020 in-cluding 10 starters. The Owls actually rank No. 1 in Bill Connelly's returning production on defense (96%!). Keep an eye on LB Blaze Alldredge who was 1st-team All-CUSA with 102 tackles and 21.5 total TFL's. 4th Down Off

The schedule is manageable for the Owls as they will be favored in three games and they have a couple other games that are near tors-ups (home vs Army and Middle Tennessee). However, the Owls will need to have a QB and a RB emerge if they want to get to bowl eligibility for the first time since 2014. Finally note that Rice got in nine spring practices before the COVID-19 shutdown, more than anyone in CUSA.

North Texas has a lot of things going for it as far as a program. They have an enrollment of nearly 40,000 and are located in the suburbs of the Dallas-Forth Worth metroplex in a football-crazed state. Fifth-year head coach Seth Littrell has done a nice job here getting the Mean Green to three bowl games. However, after back-to-back 9-win seasons, the roof kind of caved in on them last season as they fell to 4-8. Statistically speaking they were closer to being an average team, but were just 1-4 in games decided by a TD or less. Litrell does bring in five new coaches this season including DC Clint Bowen.

There's some optimism heading into 2020. Littrell signed one of the best class es in North Texas history and will take over the play-calling. The major ques-tion will come at the QB position as the Mean Green have to replace their all-time leading passer in Mason Fine who threw for 12,505 career yards and 93 TD's. Austin Aune and Jason Bean are the likely replacements. Whoever starts at QB will have plenty of weapons around them including RB's Tre Siggers and DeAndre Torrey (combined 1,233 rush yards in 2019). WR's Jaelon Darden and Jyaire Shorter (combined 21 receiving TD's in 2019) also return. The defense has some more room for improvement, but the Mean Green do bring back their top two tacklers and DL Dion Novil who had 13 total TFL's a year ago. The schedule will see North Texas most likely start the season at 1-3 and then it will depend on how they do in close games. Despite losing one of their best players in school history in QB Fine and having an overhauled coaching staff, we think North Texas could top last year's 4-win total.

UTSA fired Frank Wilson last December after back-to-back losing seasons. The Roadrunners were a respectable 12-12 in 2016-17 and started the 2018 season 3-3 before collapsing to just 4-14 in their last 18 games. New head coach Jeff Traylor has ties to the state of Texas having been a high school head coach at Gilmer for 15 years (3 state championships). Traylor has also been known as a good recruiter at Texas, SMU and Arkansas the last 5 years. We like his coordi-nator hires in O.C. Barry Lunney and long-time D.C. Tyrone Nix.

Traylor and company inherit an experienced and talented roster thanks to three straight Top 100 recruiting classes from 2017-2019. That's a big reason why UTSA is No. 85 in our roster talent rankings. QB's Lowell Narcisse and Frank Harris (both left-handed) return and they added in New Mexico St transfer Josh Adkins (22 starts last 2 years) recently. Leading rusher Sincere McCormick (983 yards and 8 TD's) is back as well as three of their top four receivers.

The defense has to replace their top two tacklers from last year. However, keep an eye on DT Jaylon Haynes who had two sacks and 10.5 TFL's a year ago They also bring in Oklahoma St transfer JayVeon Cardwell at CB.

All new head coaches and staff will be challenged more than normal this year UTSA is no different as they failed to get in any spring practices before the COVID-19 cancellations. However, the schedule does feature four or five winnable games and we think the Roadrunners will match last year's win total.

Just four years ago, Old Dominion won 10 games and a bowl game. However, they haven't had a winning season since and the Monarchs come into the 2020 season losers of 11 straight. Head coach Bobby Wilder resigned after 11 years on the job (77-56 career record) and ODU brings in former Penn St O.C. Ricky Rahne, Rahne doesn't have any prior head coaching experience but passed his first test on the job by signing one of ODU's best recruiting classes.

Rahne also inherits one of the more experienced teams in the country (No. 7 in Bill Connelly's returning production). Eight starters are back on offense but note ODU had one of the worst offenses in the country in 2019. The Monarches were No. 129 in yards per play and also managed to throw only 5 TD passes all season! All four QB's return and all four have playing experience the last couple of years. We do like their receiving corps including Aaron Moore, Nige Fitzgerald and Virginia Tech transfer Eric Kumah. The offensive line is led by 3-year starter Isaac Weaver at center. The defense was easily the better of the two units last year (ranked No. 46 in ypg, No. 66 in ypp and No. 79 in scoring) Nine starters are back led by MLB Lawrence Garner (111 tacklses). However DE Keion White might be the best player on the team (15.5 TFL's and 3.5 sacks). He really flashed on tape vs Virginia.

The schedule sets up nicely as there are four or five winnable games in the first half of the season after the opener vs Wake Forest. However, ODU closes the season facing 6 teams that all made a bowl in 2019. This looks like a 3 or 4-win campaign which is a step in the right direction. . . . ----

2020 Season Win Projection

No program has had a worse 3-year run than the Miners who are just 2-34 SU since 2017. Head coach Dana Dimel has managed just one win over an FBS opponent the last two years and UTEP enters 2020 losers of 11 straight games.

It doesn't look like it will get any better in 2020 as UTEP is one of the least experienced teams in the country ranking No. 129 in Bill Connelly's returning production as they return just nine starters. It's not like the replacements are talented as we rank UTEP dead last in overall roster talent. The Miners lose their ented as we rank UTEP dead last in overall roster talent. The Miners lose their top two QB's including dual threat talent Kai Locksley (535 rushing yards). UTEP did get in six spring practices before the COVID-19 shutdown. Gavin Hardison and TJ Goodwin look like the top two candidates at QB. Their leading rusher Treyvon Hughes (682 yards and 12 TD's) also departs. UTEP does have a couple big play guys coming back. First, RB Quardraiz Wadley is back after missing last season (627 yards and 8 TD's in 2018). WR Jacob Cowing also returns after averaging 17.7 yards per catch last season. On defense, UTEP's best pass rusher Praise Amaewhule is back and UTEP is excited about the depth of their DL, with a bunch of IUCO transfers. On special teams, kicker Gavin of their DL with a bunch of JUCO transfers. On special teams, kicker Gavin Baechle returns after impressing us on film. Returner Duron Lowe is also back as he had a 100-yard kick return TD vs North Texas.

The schedule will not be forgiving though as we project UTEP to be an underdog in all 12 games including 11 by double-digits. If Dimel somehow manages two wins this season, we would say they are taking a step in the right direction.
