

Empty Seats everywhere

Our world is transforming as we speak
Destruction caused by an unseen fiend raging like a fire
Metamorphosing our worlds forever
Empty seats will continue to appear
I will change the world, only if I can find a cure
That is a sincere, fervent prayer.

What created this chaos and travesty?
It is a cruel and invisible entity
How did it deny many souls and spirits?
Empty seats will gradually continue to appear
I will change the world by spreading awareness about mental health
With a lot of zeal and fervor in order to save our future

Our faces only wear the mask
Inner thoughts cannot be disguised
Fear and anxiety leaves a mark
Empty seats left in search of food everywhere
I will change the world by ending world hunger
But, for now, I'm only a teenager

Evolutionary instincts enable adaptation
Our creativity enables innovation.
I will change the world by informing people about climate change
Or my Mother Earth will suffer
Standing United we can make a difference
In order to sustain this world forever

Along with compassion, kindness and empathy
We can set the world toward the path to recovery
Humanity will come to the rescue
Teachers, doctors, nurses, volunteers to name a few
Right now, I will change the world by doing my part and soon hopefully everything will be alright
