

Belgium and Norway have signed a new tax treaty

(June 4, 2014)

On April 23, 2014 Belgium and Norway signed a new treaty on the avoidance of double taxation. This treaty will replace the treaty from 1988. The new treaty has been signed, but has not entered into force yet. You can find the text of the newly signed treaty on the website of the Belgian Government. If you click here you will be forwarded to the website of the Belgian government, which will open in a new window.
