

Ivy S. Holsey

Ivy became a member of the Oracle Set Book Club in 1999, sponsored by Alice Hayes. She was born in Richmond, Virginia, but only lived there until she was five years old. Her father was in the military, and the family moved quite bit. Ivy and her wonderful husband have three children, Ronald, Jessica, and Michael. She holds a Bachelors of Arts degree form Rutgers University and Juris Doctorate degree from the Howard University School of Law. She is currently an attorney with the AARP Legal Counsel for the Elderly. Her pastimes include playing tennis and golf and reading great books.