

BAOR ORDER OF BATTLE

JULY 1989

*“But Pardon, and Gentles all,
The flat unraised spirits that have dared
On this unworthy scaffold to bring forth
So great an object...”*

Chorus, Henry V Act 1, Prologue

This document began over five years ago from my frustration in the lack of information (or just plain wrong information) regarding the British Army of The Rhine in general and the late Cold War in particular. The more I researched through books, correspondence, and through direct questions to several “Old & Bold” on Regimental Association Forums, the more I became determined to fill in this gap. The results are what you see in the following pages.

Before I begin a list of acknowledgements let me recognize my two co-authors, for this is as much their work as well as mine. “PM” was instrumental in sharing his research on the support Corps, did countless hours of legwork, and never failed to dig up information on some of my arcane questions. “John” made me “THINK” British Army! He has been an inspiration; a large part of this work would have not been possible without him. He added the maps and the color formation signs, as well as reformatting the whole document. I can only humbly say that these two gentlemen deserve any and all accolades as a result of this document.

Though we have put much work into this document it is far from finished. Anyone who would like to contribute information of their time in BAOR or sources please contact me at BAORORBAT@gmail.com. The document will be updated with new information periodically.

A further note, though the title says 1989 the relevant official documents (MORBAT, see Bibliography) seem to have been misplaced at the Ministry of Defence. Thus much of this work is based on the MORBAT dated December 1991. Additional research seems to indicate that, aside from adding several units, the overall ORBAT was stable during these years. However if there are any factual errors they are mine alone and please feel free to correct me.

I would like to quickly thank the following; I will be adding a more comprehensive list in later editions. But, for now:

- RAOOnline Forum: Mike 2817, clivethomas, Smeg, Peter, Meltdown, SteveSutton, keeler, ron9516, soldier1, GeoffM, SupCon01, Covell, matanvah, frank, and NigelAstley. If I missed anyone I humbly apologize.
- The Royal Artillery Association Forum: addick, Sunray-minor, juheeman, Pat..D, mbeazley, pjjobson, Phil, cloudpunching46th, and Niagra18.

- Defence Academy of the UK Library: Imelda Winn
- Royal Artillery Library, Woolwich: Paul Evans
- The British Library: Joanne Hawkins
- Bridget Morrison and Emma Jones at the MOD, whose patience in answering all my questions and their time in researching my Freedom of Information requests was/is invaluable.
- BAOR-locations.org, simply invaluable! : JPW, steve, Wilf, and Nobby, soprano54, alan8376
- Manfred Tegge: Thank you for all the German corrections
- Kieran Marum: A special thanks for all the senior officer appointments
- Andy Rix at coldwargamer.blogspot.com
- To all those Tanknetters (Stuart, Rob, Ray, Ryan, Hans, John, and Phil) who provided me with their support in this endeavor, I sincerely thank you.

Finally, John and PM, again they are the equal co-authors of this work. Without them this document would never have been completed.

- 1 (BR) Corps. 1 (BR) Corps was by far the largest element of BAOR. HQ 1 (BR) Corps was based in Bielefeld. In war it would defend a sector of the North German Plain between 1 (GE) Corps and 1 (BE) Corps. The 1 BR Corps area on Transition to War extended, on its North-South axis, from a line just north of Hanover to just north of Kassel (the foothills of the Harz Mountains). On its East-West axis, it extended from the Inner German Border to a line just west of Soest. (The Corps Forward Area was east of the Weser River and the Corps Rear Area west of it.) See Map.

NORTHERN ARMY GROUP (NORTHAG)

NORTHAG itself was commanded by AFCENT. 1 (BR) Corps consisted of Corps Troops and four divisions. 1, 3 and 4 Armd Divisions (less 19 Inf Bde) were based in Germany. In time of war 1 (BR) Corps was reinforced by the UK based 2 Inf Div.

Whilst this document does not seek to describe the envisaged battle plans a brief understanding can help explain the nature of the British orbat. 1 (BR) Corps was faced by the Soviet 3rd Shock Army as the first echelon force with 20th Guards Army as the second echelon. The plan to defeat the Soviets involved four elements. Firstly a screening force would delay the Soviet advance allowing the Armd Divisions to prepare their defensive positions and confirm the axes of advance. Secondly the main defensive battle was initially fought by 1 Armd Div (forward left i.e. north) and 4 Armd Div (forward right i.e. south). 4 Armd Div's area was more woody and undulating – hence the presence of 19 Inf Bde in 4 Armd Div. It was planned that 1 & 4 Armd Div's efforts would force a Soviet echelon change. Thirdly 3 Armd Div was to the rear and would strike to defeat the Soviet 2nd Echelon and seize the initiative. This strike to defeat mission explains why the STRIKER in 3 Armd Div's Recce Regt (9th/12th Lancers) were grouped into a single squadron whilst in the Screening Force Recce Regts they provided a troop in each squadron to provide overwatch. Finally 2 Inf Div defended the Corps Rear Area with responsibility for the River Weser as a back stop. See Map.

- British Rear Combat Zone. BR RCZ had its headquarters in Dusseldorf. It was responsible for the resupply of the fighting formations.
- The British Communications Zone. BR Comm Z had its headquarters at Emblem in Belgium. It was tasked to receive reinforcements from Great Britain and to co-ordinate their onward movement to 1 (BR) Corps.
- British Sector Berlin. The fourth and final element was the Berlin Infantry Brigade, which was 3,000 strong and not subordinated to NORTHAG but under the control of the Allied Control Council in Berlin.

Contents

For clarity and ease the units are grouped into the following elements. BAOR Tps groups those units supporting BAOR as a whole, the BR RCZ, CommZ and NATO. Each page in a section is tagged with the section title for ease of reference.

Appendix A: The Continental TA	pages 107 - 108
Appendix B: Major Army Equipment 1989-1990	pages 109 - 110
Appendix C: Abbreviations and Acronyms	pages 111 - 116
Bibliography	pages 117 - 128

For the most part Units are listed firstly by their parent Formation (Corps / Division and Brigade) and then by the British Army's Order of Precedence (RAC, RA, RE, Avn, R SIGNALS, Inf & SAS, Tpt, Med, Sup, Maint, Pro, PCS, Lab & Int). In some instances units are grouped together by function e.g. Fmn HQ Signals / RPC HQ Defence Platoon and Int Sect. Postal & Courier Units have been listed with the other RE units.

- Wksp REME

Note: Only 156 Bty, 2xTps 73 Bty, & the FDC Gp BAOR assigned

Note on 73 Bty: 73 (Sphinx) Mortar Locating Bty was placed in suspended animation in March 1991, its personnel going to each of the four M109 Regts to form Mortar Loc Tps (the Abbot Regts already had them). In April 1991 the Bty was reformed using personnel taken from the SBOPs from 5 & 32 Hy Regts and renamed 73 (Sphinx) Special OP Bty and came under peacetime command of 5 Hy Regt. Thus 73 Bty became the regular counterpart of the HAC.

The Honourable Artillery Company

8th Bn, The Queen's Fusiliers (Volunteers)

Locations:

Type: TA INF BN (NATO ARTY SY)

- Bn HQ & HQ Coy - St. John's Hill, Clapham Junction
- A (Highwood) Coy - TAC Flodden Rd, Camberwell
- B (Middlesex) Coy - Edgware & Hornsey
- C (City of London Fusiliers) Coy - Balham w/Pl @ Orpington

Note: Security for 50 Missile Regt. The UKLF ORBAT Review Action Plan recommended that an additional TA Inf Bn be formed in London District for MHD which would "resolve the 8 QF anomaly". It does not elaborate further if the Bn was going to be split along Queen's Regt/RRF lines or if a new two Bn "London Regt" would be formed.

TA Observation Post Batteries (provided the third OP party to each regular field battery)

266 (Gloucestershire Volunteer Artillery) OP Bty RA (V)

- 53 (Louisburg) Air Defence Bty
- 35 Air Defence Bty
- 42 (Alam Hamza) Air Defence Bty
- Wksp REME

Note: 46 Offrs 799 ORs with 24x TRACKED RAPIER (11 & 53 Btys) and 24x TOWED RAPIER FSB1 (35 & 42 Btys).

16 Air Defence Regt RA "Strathclyde Gunners"

Location: Rapier Bks, Kirton-in-Lindsey

Type: AD REGT (RAPIER)

- RHQ & HQ Tp
- 14 (Cole's Kop) Air Defence Bty
- 30 Air Defence Bty (Roger's Company)
- 32 (Minden) Air Defence Bty
- [20 Air Defence Bty]
- Wksp REME

Notes: 39 Offrs 631 ORs with 36x TOWED RAPIER FSB1 (12 per Bty). 20 Bty was reformed April 1990, supports 3 Commando Bde, RM. One Bty supports UKMF, only 2x Btys would support 1st BR Corps. Regt provides 2x BADLO parties, one each to 15 and 49 Inf Bdes.

6 Air Defence Regt RA

Location: ?

Type: AD REGT (HVM)

- RHQ & HQ Bty
- H Air Defence Bty (Ramsay's Troop)
- M Air Defence Bty
- V Air Defence Bty
- Wksp REME

Note: To be formed in the early 1990's when STARSTREAK HVM comes into service (in service date 1991-93) to consist of three batteries each of 36x HVM STORMER. The British Army: A Pocket Guide 2nd Edition (1986-87), states it would be numbered "15" this had been confirmed by correspondence with the Royal Artillery Museum. However new information direct from the MOD indicate it would be numbered "6" (I side with MOD on this one, 6 used to be a RHA Regt and the Btys were all old RHA units). See also "New Air Defence Regiment for BAOR", Jane's Defence Weekly, 27 December 1987. As per BAOR's submission to The TA ORBAT Review, HQ 1st Arty Bde felt it was "highly desirable" that a fourth crewmember be added to each vehicle crew. Options were a new TA Bty or individual reservists who were capable of being trained as a driver, signaller and missile operator. The total requirement was for 108 ORs

Further Notes: After the formation of 6 AD Regt, each Armd Div would have 1x AD Bty with JAVELIN, 1x HVM Bty, and 1x TRACKED RAPIER Bty, and 1x TOWED RAPIER Bty assigned. I believe that three of the AD Regts would then take over these four btys (one AD Regt HQ to each Armd Div) leaving one AD Regt HQ to command the remaining 3x TOWED RAPIER and 1x TRACKED RAPIER Btys for the Corps Rear Area.

Royal Artillery TA Reinforcements

- 219 (City of Dundee) Bty - Dundee
- LAD REME (V)

Note: Each Bty established for 16x JAVELIN MANPADS and 12x OPs.

Further notes: As per BAOR's submission to The TA ORBAT Review, HQ 1st Arty Bde felt it was "highly desirable" that the Parachute Regiment Group be assigned a BADLO (Bde AD Liason Officer) party of 1x Offr and 1x SNCO (24hr manning) to advise PRG Comd on AD, as well as to command and coordinate any intimate AD assets. 15 and 49 Inf Bdes already had 2x BADLO parties from 16 AD Regt and 24 Airmobile Bde 1x from 21 AD Bty. These three Regts seem to have had a role in both the CRA and RCZ. Sources: 1988 SOHB & "Armed Forces Magazine July 1987 Vol 6 No 7"

Logistics 1st Artillery Brigade

8 Artillery Support Regt RCT

General Note: With the introduction of DROPS vehicles, HQ 1 (BR) Corps felt the vehicle were such high value targets that they asked that a LMG dets of reservists (1x LCpl & 2x Ptes) be added to DROPS Regts to protect them in both hides and during operations. HQ 1 BR Corps called for the following:

69 x dets:

15x dets each (total of 45) for 1 and 3 Armd Div Tpt Regts and 8 Regt

10x dets for 4 Armd Div Tpt Regt

10x dets for 10 Corps Tpt Regt

(4xdets are unallocated)

Notes on RCT listings: The bulk of information regarding all RCT entries in this document come from two major sources. The book "British Army Transport and Logistics. Robert Swan & Geoff Fletcher. Ian Allan Ltd. London, 1991." Along with the following webpage at the Movement Control Association's website, www.movcon.org.uk/History/Documents/DID/D-MCHS%200387.htm. The document on the webpage is from the 1984/85 training year so there might be discrepancies. Additionally various issues of "The Waggoner: Journal of The Royal Corps of Transport from 1988, 1989, 1990, & 1991" were consulted.

- 55 Ordnance Coy (V) (Ammo) Heston

Note: TTW 54 & 55 Ord Coys reinforced 52 & 53 Ord Coys. "In time of War the Static Ammunition Depots would have been outloaded to pre-planned CSA's (Combat Support Areas) and the 2 coys would establish a 24 hour shift system, in reality the companies were mixed together to establish a skills mix. Unit PUE's were held within 5 Ord Bn." Source: Mike from RAOC online forum.

- FSts (Ammo) Hildesheim
- FSts (Ammo) Hessich Oldendorf
- FSts (Ammo) Hagenohsen

Note: 1 (BR) Corps Combat Supplies Bn. 5 Ord Bn was technically responsible for all FSts (Field Storage Sites) which were under control of the Ord Coy's Combat Supply PI for outloading.

Locations: HQ & two pls Newton Aycliffe, two pls Debdon Gardens, Newcastle-on-Tyne

*Note: Supports 1 (BR) Corps Troops Workshop, REME. The Operational Role of 124 Recovery Company was to implement the REME Recovery Plan for the 1 (BR) Corps Rear Area under command Commander REME Corps Troops (this was trialed on Exercise Lionheart in 1982). In Layman's terms this was to provide an AA Relay style Roadside Rescue Service along the Main Supply Routes and Vulnerable Points (including the Weser Crossing Points) in the area west of the Forward Divisions rear boundaries to the Rear Combat Zone. The unit was under peacetime administrative command of 15 Infantry Brigade and there were thoughts that an element of the unit should rerole to provide the REME 2nd Line Workshop support to the Brigade on operations as mentioned elsewhere in this document. Note: Security for HQ BRSC as per documents obtained from MOD (as of 1991).

However during Ex Plain Sailing in 1989;

"B Coy's Role was protection and security for the RCZ HQ. We were accommodated on the 2 or 3 floors in the old Luftwaffe Sgts Mess in the barracks next to Dusseldorf airport. It could have been Caernarvon Barracks. I remember that our A Coy was responsible in the next barracks for a POW facility, with MPs over from MCTC Colchester. B Coy flew from Manchester Airport to Dusseldorf direct, and were chosen for this task because we were Champion Company, and the remainder of the Bn went to Holcombe Moor camp near Bolton, before coming to Germany and was reinforced by reservists. When they came by road, it Land Rovers and 4 ton Bedfords. During the second week of Annual Camp we were in Sennelager and spent our time on range work, Coy Exercises and visits to the Inner German border. The journey back to the UK was a nightmare sea journey on the "Petrel", from Rotterdam to Harwich in force 10 gales. Any vehicles on the top deck were damaged during this journey." Info from Major (Retd) John Woodhouse

According to The Lancashire Lad: The Journal of The Queen's Lancashire Regiment May 1988 Vol.VIII No.1 the Bn had exercised in the Bridge Demolition Guard role.

General Note: The above TA Inf Bns had their MILAN (AT) Pl assigned to Bns/Bdes in the FEBA/CRA. HQ BAOR had originally put forward a proposal for these Pls to be taken from their Bns and permanently made part of the units they supported, ie 3 RRW would disband their Pl and 5 Queens would expand theirs. However my sources tell me that HQ BAOR withdrew its own proposal on the realization that it would take too long to implement (2-3 years) and that it would preclude having the flexibility to use the Bns affected in the FEBA/CRA if need be.

Appendix A: The Continental TA

In 1984 BAOR began a pilot scheme to recruit ex-service personnel that had settled on the continent (mostly in The Low Countries and West Germany). Six (6) Sqn/Tp/PI size units were formed (listed by parent formation in the document). By 1989 the success of the scheme was apparent and BAOR prepared to expand the "Continental TA" to 2,000 personnel. Starting in 1990, the expansion was to be in two phases. I have listed them for interest here.
