Stewardship Reflection

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." - MATTHEW 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second.

Join Us When We Recite the Rosary on Fridays at 1:00 p.m. in the Chapel. Remember, where two or more of us are found--he is in our midst.

MISSION SUNDAY

We have several hundreds of missionary lay people, sisters, brothers and priests serving all over the world. They bring the gospel message of God's love in parishes, schools, hospitals and in towns and villages where these are lacking.

Missionaries are taught to become one with the people in respect for their cultures; to share in their human aspirations for betterment; and, to seek and understand their noble ideals and beliefs. They learn the language, culture, history and religions of the people to whom they are sent.

We, too, are to be missionaries here at home. A good rule of thumb is to always respect the other person and to be willing to listen to their thoughts, views and experiences.

We who believe and find the parish to be a place of support, comfort and challenge can speak of our own positive experiences of God's presence in prayer, community life and social outreach.

We have been given a wonderful message to share, but it is not just words. The best message is how God has changed my and our lives for the better and given us hope and peace.

POST-ABORTIVE HEALING MINISTRY

The Diocese of Saginaw Respect Life Office offers Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreats for those who are struggling with spiritual and emotional pain after an abortion. The next retreat will be held in Saginaw on November 10-12, 2017. The retreat is confidential and an emotionally safe environment for those who attend. Call Lori Becker at 989-797-6652 or email lbecker@dioceseofsaginaw.org.

Blessings to all!

Fr. David

The Gospel in Everyday English

That's when the Pharisees plotted a way to trap him into saying something damaging. They sent their disciples, with a few of Herod's followers mixed in, to ask, "Teacher, we know you have integrity, teach the way of God accurately, are indifferent to popular opinion, and don't pander to your students. So tell us honestly: Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

Jesus knew they were up to no good. He said, "Why are you playing these games with me? Why are you trying to trap me? Do you have a coin? Let me see it." They handed him a silver piece.

"This engraving—who does it look like? And whose name is on it?"

They said, "Caesar."

"Then give Caesar what is his, and give God what is his" (from Matthew 22).
