

Officer's Meeting January 20, 2018 American Legion Post 246

Meeting commenced 8:35 a.m.

- Vice Commander Eric Ardell discussed the crab feed. It will be same as last year except with the addition of a 50/50 raffle. He recapped the assignments volunteers were needed for. He addressed the need for an individuals need for gluten free food. Group input followed.
- Vice Commander Eric Ardell announced who the speaker will be for the February regular meeting speaking about the Bataan Death March. Read the SALVO if you wish more info about the speaker.
- Vice Commander Eric Ardell mentioned there will be two contestants for the oratorical contest on the 25th, winner going on to Area 2 as there is no District contest this year.
- Vice Commander Eric Ardell asked for volunteers for Boys and Girls State.
- Alan Scharlach mentioned he checked with the Eagle Scout and plans are being made for the Burn Pit to retire flags in April at Camp Parks.
- Vice Commander Eric Ardell reported that the State Convention will be in Sacramento this year. Those who wish to attend should contact Commander Randy Reid as he is the Dist. 9 coordinator for lodging. Vice Commander Eric Ardell talked about resolutions that were brought up last year.
- Michelle Lee announced the community meeting for Camp Parks on Jan 23rd at the Dublin Library.
- Vice Commander announced that the regular meeting for March 7th will be an evening meeting at Black Bear Diner in Danville at the cost of $21.00. If this works a dinner meeting will follow once a quarter. Chaplain Richard Seavey suggested that wives be invited.
- The group discussed potential speakers.
- Raoul Miranda presented year end financial report. Ron Roe made motion to accept, Gary Soto seconded, and the report was accepted by voice vote.

Meeting was adjourned by Vice Commander Eric Ardell at 9:50 am