CODE OF ETHICS
OKLAHOMA ASSOCIATION OF FIRE EQUIPMENT DEALERS, INC.

PREAMBLE ••• We, the member companies of the Oklahoma Association of Fire Equipment Dealers, Inc. (OAFED), being primarily involved in the sale and service of fire protection products to the citizens of the State of Oklahoma, and recognizing our responsibility to provide those goods and services in a professional like manner, have formed an Association to ensure competence and high moral standards by member companies. Motives of profit or competition can never justify departure from these ideals.

Accepting these standards as our business norm, each OAFED member company pledges to conduct its business activities in accordance with the articles set forth below:

ARTICLE 1 A OAFED member company shall not deny equal professional-like services to any person for reasons of race, creed, sex or country of national origin. A OAFED member company shall not be a party to any plan or agreement to discriminate against any person or persons on the basis of race, creed, sex or country of national origin.

ARTICLE 2 A OAFED member company shall make all efforts to educate its personnel in matters concerning changes in safety procedures, manufacturer's recommended service and maintenance procedures and Code requirements.

ARTICLE 3 A OAFED member company should strive to keep informed on matters affecting local, State and Federal Code changes and changes in fire protection products or services, so that the member company may be able to contribute responsibly to public thinking on such matters.

ARTICLE 4 In justice to those who place their interests in the care of a OAFED member company, that member company should endeavor always to be informed regarding laws, proposed legislation, governmental regulations, public policies and current market conditions in order to be in a position to properly advise the member company's clients.

ARTICLE 5 It is the duty of a OAFED member company to protect the public against fraud, misrepresentation and unethical practices in the fire protection industry. A member company should endeavor to eliminate any practices within its area of operation which could be damaging to the public or bring discredit to the fire protection industry or this Association.

ARTICLE 6 In the best interests of society, of its associates and its own business, a OAFED member company should be loyal to the Board of Directors of OAFED and active in the work of the Association.

ARTICLE 7 A OAFED member company shall avoid exaggeration and misrepresentation in conducting its business.

ARTICLE 8 A OAFED member company is expected to provide a level of competent service in keeping with the Standards of Practice in those fields in which the member company customarily engages.

ARTICLE 9 A OAFED member company shall not disparage the business practice of a competitor nor volunteer an opinion of a competitor's transaction. If the member company's opinion is sought and if the member company deems it appropriate to respond, such opinion shall be rendered with strict professional integrity and courtesy.

ARTICLE 10 A OAFED member company shall be selective in doing business with any company which has refused just payment to another member company.

ARTICLE 11 All OAFED member companies pledge reasonable assistance to fellow members.

ARTICLE 12 No OAFED member company or individual employed by a member company shall take advantage of his or her position with a governmental or regulatory agency if it causes conflict of interest.

Accepted by the OAFED Member Companies this 22nd day of June 1993.
