

Part-Time Choir Director Position Ayden Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)

The Ayden Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) Church located in Ayden, NC seeks a Part-Time Choir Director. This position of Part-Time Choir Director focuses primarily upon preparation of the volunteer sanctuary choir for worship services on Sunday morning and special occasions. Our church choir, while small (8-12 voices), is gifted and capable of performing a wide range of pieces and styles.

There is one worship service at 9:55 a.m. on Sunday mornings. The worship is in the Disciples of Christ tradition while being a blended service of traditional and contemporary components. The choir practices each Sunday for one hour following the morning worship service or on one weekday evening. The choir looks to the Director to set the tone, provide for ample rehearsal of materials, inspire to reach its potential, and enter worship services with an appropriate attitude that comes from confidence in preparation and an uplifting atmosphere.

Job expectations include, but are not limited to:

- Knowledge and experience with directing a volunteer church choir.
- Committed background to church life.
- Familiarity with music used in worship and the willingness to understand Disciples theological perspective.
- Good ear, good singing voice, and ability to achieve good balance (voices and any instruments).
- Communication with accompanist (pianist) to provide time for his/her rehearsal.

Compensation is commensurate with church choir leadership experience.

Inquiries and desire for further information please to Ayden Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) at aydendisciples@gmail.com or Church Office at 252-746-3555.

