KTWH to Announce Agate Football State Tournament Game

On Saturday, November 10, Two Harbors Community Radio, at 99.5 FM and ktwh.org online, will carry the State Tournament Class AAA quarter-final playoff game from Bemidji between the Two Harbors Agates and the Perham Yellowjackets. Two Harbors advanced to the state football tournament for the first time since 1977 last week with a thrilling 26-18 victory over Greenway-Nashauk-Keewatin that was listened to by many hundreds of fans at ktwh.org and over the air at 99.5 FM. Agate alum Will Peterson was on hand to report the stunning 99 yard pick six play that ended the game. Peterson will be doing play by play for all the Agates' state tournament games on KTWH. Tune in for play by play action as well as color commentary and interviews with key personnel before the game and at the breaks.

Live radio and web stream coverage of the Agates vs. Perham starts with pre-game at 2:30, and the ktwh.org, kickoff follows at 3 PM. There will be over 400 online listener seats added this game for Agate fans far and wide. If THHS advances, KTWH plans to broadcast the semi-final game as well. Tune to KTWH, 99.5 FM (streaming at ktwh.org) to get updates on the station's football tournament broadcast schedule.

Two Harbors Community Radio is able to provide this coverage with equipment funded by the LaBounty Family Fund and the Two Harbors Area Fund, and with the support of area business sports underwriters. KTWH is grateful for the assistance of Activities Director Scott Ross and the Lake Superior School District in arranging these broadcasts.
