To Whom It May Concern:

The Institute For Global Outreach, Inc. (IGO) is a non-profit organization which is completely staffed by volunteers. The CEO, her husband and family does not receive a salary nor does any director or worker. In fact, the CEO has contributed a substantial amount of her personal money and donates countless hours of her time running the organization. Due to the hard work and passion of the volunteers, IGO's programs have been able to support many unfortunate families.

With the exception of the direct expenses from the walks for humanity, all other expenses associated with running the organization, i.e. utilities and office supplies, are paid for by Quality Office Supply, which is a family owned business of IGO's CEO. Quality Office Supply also does not charge IGO any rent for use of office space.

IGO is a positive influence in our community and has done remarkable work and will continue to change the lives of hundreds of families due to the vision and dedication of the CEO.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to you are deductible under section 170 of the Code. You are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under section 2055, 2106 or 2522 of the Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined that you are a public charity under the Code section(s) listed in the heading of this letter.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.
